"Ernie attended Penn State from 1932 to 1936, and received a BS degree in Electrical Engineering. In 1941, he went to England to study English Radar systems for about a year, then to the Pacific on Okinawa and Saipan as Commander of a Radar Company. He was promoted to Major, and released from duty in December 1944.

In June 1936, Ernie was employed by West Penn Power Company, and in 1970 WPPCO was reorganized emerging with the new name Allegheny Power. He was the Division Engineering Supervisor responsible for distribution lines and cost estimates. After working for this power company for 45 years, he retired in February 1980. During these 45 years, he has lived in Washington, PA, Greensburg, Pennsylvania, and in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania when he retired.

After 2 weeks vacation, Ernie & Mary Louise moved to Waxhaw, NC, to do volunteer work for the Wycliffe Bible Translators. He worked in Communications and Solar Power, and she worked in the kitchen performing the many duties required to feed about 100 people. Mary Louise worked in the Tour Office for the last 10 years of their stay in Waxhaw. In 2001, after 21 years in Waxhaw, they retired a second time and moved to a retirement home in Rock Hill, SC. In his spare time, Ernie has enjoyed his hobbies of flying and amateur radio communications."

"Born about 9:00 AM, first-born June weighed 4 lbs 8 oz, while fraternal twin Joanne weighed in at 3 lbs 5 oz. The twins arrived a month early, and were a great surprise since only one baby was expected.

We lived at 6 Garrison Street, Boston, MA, and moved to 383 Walden Street in Cambridge, MA, on the corner of Saville Street, when the twins were about 3 years old. There Fred Jr. (we called him "Brother") was born just after I turned 8. Family birthdays were never forgotten, since they were all in April. When Fred Sr. was offered a position with E.A. Warnick Artificial Limbs in Wilkes-Barre, PA, owned and operated by Hazel's brother Ernest, we moved to 56 Carey Ave in Wilkes-Barre, Hazel's home town.

Uncle Ernie (Ernest Warnick) was married to my father's sister, Nellie, and their children, Ernie & Marion, were double cousins to the twins. We were 9 years old when we moved in August 1938 to Wilkes-Barre. Our paternal grandfather, Montrose, still lived on the farm, 3 miles outside of Shickshinny, PA, 20 miles south of Wilkes-Barre, but was senile and always called Fred "Archie," his older brother's name. Montrose's brother John and John's wife, Lizzie, lived on the farm next door, and their children - Myrtle, Marion, Oscar, and Stanford - were our father's cousins. His mother, Mary Kingsbury, died in childbirth when Fred Sr. was 7, and the baby did not survive. I have Mary's organ on which she played hymns for devotions in the front parlor of the farmhouse.

We moved to 27 Gates Street in South Wilkes-Barre when I was 14, and I attended grades 7 through 12 at Elmer L. Meyers High School, graduating in 1946. I entered Bucknell Junior College in the fall of 1946. In 1947, Bucknell became a 4-year school named Wilkes College. Here I met Sheldon Gamage Turley, my future husband, who had just returned from service in the Pacific area. I was graduated from Wilkes in 1950 with a B.S. in chemistry, and moved to State College, PA that summer to attend graduate school at Pennsylvania State University (PSU). I was hired by the Department of Dairy Husbandry to do analytical chemistry.

In September 1950, I began graduate study in the PSU Chemistry Department, and received a Master of Science degree in 1951 with a thesis on chemical kinetics. In 1952 I transferred to the Biochemistry Department, and began work in X-ray crystallography in the Physics Department, under Ray Pepinsky as my Ph.D. research advisor. My dissertation reported on the crystal structure of cycloserine hydrochloride, an anti-tubercular drug.

My husband and I were awarded our Ph.D. degrees at the same ceremony in August 1957. Uncle Ernie and Aunt Nellie gave us a farewell luncheon at the Nittany Lion Inn on the Penn State campus, and both of our families attended. We both had offers from Dow Chemical, and we left right after lunch for Midland, Michigan. We rented a two-bedroom apartment at 2500 Damman Drive, and lived there through the birth of two children, Sheldon Jr. in 1958, and Cynthia in 1959. When I became pregnant in 1963, we built a house at 1208 Wakefield Drive, and moved in while I was in the hospital for the birth of my third child, Linda, in 1964.

I began work at Dow with Dr. Ludo Frevel in 1957 in the X-ray crystallography lab, doing both powder diffraction and single-crystal work. I stayed with that group for 15 years until we merged with the Michigan Division Analytical Lab in 1971, and I was appointed a Research Manager. During a strike in 1974, I analyzed samples from Vietnam for dioxin, until I broke my leg while ice skating in Bay City. On returning to work, I transferred to the Economic Evaluation and Development group at headquarters, where I prepared economic studies for major global projects. After 10 years, I transferred to the Regulatory Compliance Group in Health and Environmental Sciences, and worked on Dow compliance with the Toxic Substances Control Act. I retired from that position in April 1993. After one month as a retiree, I began part-time work at Allis Information Management (AIM) as a Business Intelligence Analyst. AIM has about 30 employees; half are full time, the rest part time. I continue to work at AIM, providing an internal newsletter, external reports for the chemical and agricultural industries, and as a technical consultant to other employees and management.

I have been active in the Midland Figure Skating Club since 1967, serving on the Board, as an officer many times and as President twice. I have served as a Delegate to the USFSA for 15-20 years and attended Annual Governing council meetings for ten years. I have been a USFSA Judge for almost 25 years, and judge both tests and non-qualifying competitions. I skated for almost 25 years on an adult synchronized skating team, winning many medals, and competing at the National Championships several times. I have passed several freestyle and dance tests, and taught beginning skating for many years as a volunteer. You could say that skating has been my passion!

I have been a member of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Midland since the early 1970s, have served on its Board, and support it with donations of my time and money. I am active in the local branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), currently completing a term as co-President, and 2 years as co-Chair of a major used-book sale, raising funds for scholarships for women. Other hobbies include reading, yard work, and reading with elementary school children."

Ellis, see page 894 in Appendix 16.

"In 1938, Uncle Ernie asked Daddy to come back to Wilkes-Barre to work with him in the family business. Because of this, our family moved from Cambridge, Massachusetts back to Pennsylvania, where our parents had both been born and raised. They rented a house in Wilkes-Barre at 56 Carey Avenue. Six years later, in 1944, our landlord asked us to move because his daughter wanted to live there. We purchased a home at 27 Gates Street, about a mile farther out of town, and our parents lived there for 25 years. The week after graduating from Meyers High School in 1946, I started working in the clerical department of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare, and continued there until I married in 1951.

After our marriage, Tudor and I lived in a second-floor apartment at 104 Slocum Street in Forty Fort, PA, and our son William was born during this time. Due to cutbacks, Tudor was furloughed from his job at GMAC and we moved to a third-floor tower apartment in the 400 block of South Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre. After Tudor's mother died in 1953 and he wasn't needed to stay in town to help care for her, he was able to seek employment out of town. Tudor was hired by Calvert Fire Insurance Company as an Insurance Adjuster, trained in Blairsville, PA, and came home on weekends. In December 1953, with the help of Tudor's federal GI Bill of Rights, we purchased a new ranch style home at 56 Holly Drive in Levittown, PA. We lived there 2-1/2 years until June 1956 when we moved back to a second floor apartment at 945 South Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre. Tudor transferred to Employer's Insurance Company in Scranton. In 1957 we moved to Tudor's mother's house at 121 Reese Street in Wilkes-Barre. Our daughter, Pamela, was born in 1959 while we lived there. In January 1962, we moved to a new home at 192 Woodbine Road in Shavertown, PA.

In 1962, I went back to work for 5 years at RCA in Mountaintop, starting as an assembler on the lines, and later moving up to Quality Control. In 1967, I was reinstated in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Health as a Clerk Steno II, working at the Regional Office in Kingston, PA. I was able to buy back my previous 5 years State retirement. In May 1972, I transferred to the Regional Office of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare in Scranton for a promotion to Clerk Typist III. The Agnes flood hit Wilkes-Barre in June 1972, and in August 1972 I was transferred to Wilkes-Barre to head up the Clerical Unit for the newly formed United Services Agency (County, State, and Federal) to handle flood dollars coming in from the Federal Government. In December 1972 I was promoted to Clerk Steno III, and in January 1978, to Administrative Assistant I. When the United Services Agency was disbanded in 1983, I was transferred back to Scranton to the Northeast Regional Office of Children, Youth and Families. After Tudor died in 1991, I continued to work, and retired Feb 20, 1998.

In September 2002, I moved to 33 West Washington Avenue in Bethlehem, PA, so I could be near my daughter and her family."

3118. Fred Russell Williams, Jr., (2438.Fred[9], 1536.Montrose[8], 794.Caleb[7], 347.Mathias[6], 126.Jabez[5], 40.Isaac[4], 12.Matthew[3], 3.Matthew[2], 1.Matthew[1]) born 22 Apr 1937 in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts,[213,231,187] baptized 17 Apr 1949 in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, at Firwood Methodist Church,[219] occupation Computer Technician (retired in 1997).[213] He married 11 Jun 1964 in Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia, at St. James United Methodist Church by Rev. Robert L. Taylor,[213,232,231] Margaret Alice Zoellner, born 11 Aug 1935 in Highlands, Macon County, North Carolina,[232,231] (daughter of Carl Henry Zoellner and Nellie Floy Reese) occupation Bookkeeper and Homemaker.[232] For pedigree of Fred R. Williams, Jr., see pages 888-891 in Appendix 16 for the pedigree charts of his parents. For pedigree chart of Margaret Alice Zoellner, see pages 892-893 in Appendix 16.

"In 1938, Fred moved with his parents from Boston to Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Meyers High School in 1954 and then attended Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia, PA for several years. As part of his college education, he worked as a "Cooperative Signal Engineering Student" for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. He worked 3 months in Richmond, Virginia, and later worked 3 months in Charleston, West Virginia.

In 1957 he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and had 4 weeks of Basic Training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonia, Texas. He then was transferred to Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, Colorado, where he received more than a year of training in Missile Control Guidance maintenance on the F-102 Interceptor. He spent the remainder of his 4-year hitch working his specialty at Lockbourne Air Force Base near Columbus, Ohio.

After an Honorable Discharge from the Air Force, Fred went to work for Sperry Gyroscope in 1961 working on ground radar. This job was short-lived because of the loss of the government contract. In November 1961 he was hired by Burroughs Corporation on another short-lived government contract, but was re-hired by Burroughs Commercial division in 1962. For the next 35 years he worked as a Customer Service Engineer with Burroughs/Unisys, maintaining small, medium, and large mainframe computer systems, and also PC's. He retired in October 1997, and since then has spent most of his spare time working on genealogy.

His first assignment was in Asheville, North Carolina where he met his lovely wife, Margaret, who was a Bookkeeper at Aston Park Hospital. After he was transferred to Augusta, Georgia in 1964, he and Margaret were married, and later that year moved to North Augusta, SC. Since 1981, they have been avid Square and Round Dancers."

In 2003, Nate & Lynne were living in North Augusta, SC. See pages 888-893 in Appendix 16 for pedigree charts.

"Although I was born in North Carolina, I now call North Augusta my home. I moved here with my Mother and new Father in the summer before I started the third grade. I attended the North Augusta High School system throughout, and graduated from North Augusta High School in May 1974. One month later, I was married.

With Nate, the love of my life, we settled down only a couple of blocks from our parents home. Nate was working for Big Star Foods and I was working as a bank teller for Farmers & Merchants Bank. Carefree and happy, we did not start a family for almost 5 years.

In 1982 Big Star Food stores folded, and Nate was hired by the Kroger Corporation. After a short term as Co-manager, in 1984 he was promoted to Store Manager at the new North Augusta Kroger. He was manager there from 1984 to 1995, when he was promoted to the Zone Staff. Today, Nate is Kroger Zone K Operations Coordinator, and his office is in Aiken, SC.

After Chrissy was born, I quit my job at the bank and became an "at home mom". In 1990, after the kids had interests of their own, I went to work for the Kroger Company as a Produce/Floral Clerk. One year later the President of the Kroger Atlanta Division, Mr. Paul Smith, asked me to come into management, and I was promoted to Co-Manager. In June 2002, my dreams came true when I was given a store of my own. I am now Store Manager at the Kroger in Aiken, SC."

CHAPTER 2

THOMAS WILLIAMS

1. Thomas Williams,[1] born about 1630 in Wales.[2] He married Rebecca (or Rebeckah) Waterhouse.[2] Thomas died 05 Feb 1692 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,4,5,6,7]

William Raymond "Ray" Williams, 5 Nith River Way, Ayr, Ontario, Canada, NOB1EO, is a sixth great grandson of Thomas Williams, and has been researching his ancestry for many years. Ray believes Thomas was the son of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT, based on the numerous references of Thomas and Matthew Williams in The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut by Henry R. Stiles.

In his 6 January 2003 letter to me, Gale Ion Harris, Ph.D., F.A.S.G., mentions an upcoming article that he and Professor Norman W. Ingham of the University of Chicago are planning to publish in the summer of 2003. Dr. Harris wrote: "The article will of course point out the absence in contemporary records of explicit evidence beyond surname and locality that this Thomas was related in any way to Matthew Williams of Wethersfield. Especially with a surname this common, we regard the correct working hypothesis to be that they were unrelated unless proven otherwise."

After considering all of the above, the following Thomas Williams chapter is included in this genealogy. There is a possibility that Matthew, Thomas, Miles, and Swain were related in some unknown way. Whatever the ultimate outcome of further research, the descendants listed in this chapter will know their lineage back to this Thomas Williams.

Children:

2. i Thomas Williams, Jr. born 09 Mar 1656.
   ii Samuel Williams,[8] born 11 Jun 1659 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,5,10,2,3.] He married Abigail.[11] Samuel died before his father (Thomas) died, 5 Feb 1692.
3. iii John Williams born 15 Apr 1662.
4. iv Jacob Williams (1) born 07 Mar 1664.
   v Sarah Williams,[2] born 18 Jan 1666 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[11,5,3] died 03 Sep 1683 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9,5,3]
   vi Rebecca Williams, born 14 Mar 1668 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9,5,3] 5. vii Mary Williams born 02 Apr 1671.

iv Eunice Williams, born 07 Oct 1688 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[11,5,10,3] died 28 Sep 1712 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[5,10,3]

8. v Samuel Williams born about 1700.

9. vi Thomas Williams born about 1700.

3. John Williams, (1.Thomas[1]) born 15 Apr 1662 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9,5,3] He married (1) about 1688 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[4] Mary Deming,[4] born 1665.[9] He married[4] (2) 24 Jan 1695 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,5,2,3] Sarah Hollister,[4] born about 1670,[9] (daughter of Thomas Hollister and Elizabeth Latimer). John died 06 May 1735.[4,14] Twice in his will, John refers to his wife as Abigail. He either had a third wife named Abigail, or his second wife was named Abigail.

Child by Mary Deming:

i Mary Williams, born 24 Aug 1689 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,5]

Children by Sarah Hollister:

ii Martha Williams, born 19 Sep 1695 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,5]

iii Dorothy Williams, born 25 Feb 1698 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,5] She married Samuel Warner.[14]

4. Jacob Williams (1),[2] also known as Captain Jacob Williams, (1.Thomas[1]) born 07 Mar 1664 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,5,3] occupation Sea Captain. He married[15] 10 Dec 1685 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,5,10,3] Sarah Gilbert,[2] born 01 Dec 1661,[9,2] (daughter of Josiah Gilbert and Elizabeth Belcher). Jacob died 26 Sep 1712 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[15,5,2,3]

Children:

i Ann Williams, born 11 Dec 1686 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[11,5,10,3] She married 23 Jun 1714,[2,10] Samuel Steele, born 01 Oct 1688,[2,10] (son of James Steele and Anna Welles).

10. ii Jacob Williams (2) born 27 Feb 1689.

11. iii Ephraim Williams born 04 or 10 Jan 1690.

12. iv Stephen Williams born 19 Mar 1693.

13. v Daniel Williams born 10 Jan 1695.

14. vi Sarah Williams born 24 Mar 1697.

15. vii David Williams born 07 Apr 1699.

viii Mary Williams, baptized 17 Nov 1701.[11,2]

5. Mary Williams, (1.Thomas[1]) born 02 Apr 1671 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9,5,3] She married 02 Jun 1698 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,2,16] Thomas Deming, born 27 Nov 1679 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[9,2] (son of Jonathan Deming and Elizabeth Gilbert) died 31 Jan 1746 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,16] Mary died 24 Aug 1751 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,16]

Children:

16. i Lucy Deming born 09 Mar 1699.

ii Mary Deming, born 17 Mar 1701 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2,16] baptized May 1701.[2] She married 30 Dec 1725,[2] Gideon Hurlbut.[2]

iii Elizabeth Deming, born 27 Sep 1703 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2,16] baptized Oct 1703.[2] She married Joseph Belden.[2]

iv Daniel Deming, born 18 May 1705 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,16]

v Abigail Deming, born 06 Nov 1706 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2,16] died 16 Mar 1708.[2,16]

vi Hannah Deming, born 22 Sep 1709 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2,16] baptized 25 Sep 1709.[2,16] She married Samuel Williams.[2]

17. vii Thomas Deming born 16 Feb 1712.

6. Abraham Williams, (1.Thomas[1]) born 23 Aug 1680 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[9,5,10,3] He married 24 Dec 1702,[9,2,5,10,3] Eunice Boardman (or Borman),[3] born 29 Jun 1682,[11,2] (daughter of Isaac Boardman (or Borman) and Abia). Abraham died 13 or 15 Dec 1711 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[10,3] According to Stiles The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, guardians were appointed for both Abia and Silence about 1724. This would only occur if Eunice was unable to care for these 2 children. This leads me to the conclusion that Eunice must have died about 1724.

Children:

18. i Eunice Williams born 20 Jul 1704.

ii Rebecca Williams,[17] born 25 Apr 1706 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[11,2,5,3]

iii Abigail Williams,[17] born 22 Feb 1708 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[11,2,5,3]

vii Elihu Williams, born 27 Dec 1754 in Glastonbury, Hartford County, Connecticut.[11]

9. Thomas Williams, (2.Thomas[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born about 1700.[11] He married 25 Jan 1721,[2,5] Hannah Tryon.

Children:

i Lydia Williams, born 20 Mar 1723.[2,5]
ii Deborah Williams, born 20 Jul 1725.[2,5]
iii Caleb Williams, born 08 Apr 1728.[2,5]
iv Prudence Williams, born 21 Feb 1731.[2,5]
v Temperance Williams, born 20 Aug 1733.[2,5]
vi Hannah Williams, born 06 Nov 1736.[2,5]
vii Gideon Williams, born 20 May 1740.[2,5]

10. Jacob Williams (2),[3] also known as Captain Williams, (4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 27 Feb 1689 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[11,5,10,3,2.] He married (1) 24 Jun 1714,[2,10] Martha Belding, born about 1693,[10] (daughter of Ebenezer Belding) died 29 Mar 1716.[2,10] He married (2) 29 Jul 1719,[2,5,10,3] Eunice Standish, born 31 May 1698,[2,10] (daughter of Thomas Standish and Mary Church) died 14 Apr 1770.[10,2] Jacob died 29 Jan 1751 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,10]

Child by Martha Belding:

23. i Martha Williams born 29 Mar 1716.

Children by Eunice Standish:

24. ii Lois Williams born 23 Jul 1720.
25. iii Ann Williams born 05 May 1722.
iv Dorothy Williams, born 24 Aug 1724 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,5,3] She married Christian Higgins.[2] v Christian Williams, born 16 Sep 1726 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,5,3] She married Levi Smith.
26. vi Moses Williams born 21 Sep 1729.
vii Sarah Williams, born 10 Sep 1731 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,5,3] 27. viii Israel Williams born Nov 1733. ix Jerusha Williams, born 1736.[2] She married 27 Jan 1763,[2] Jonathan Deming.
x Daniel Williams.[2]

11. Ephraim Williams,[3] (4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 04 or 10 Jan 1690 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[11,5,10,3] occupation Merchant at Wethersfield from 1748 to 1761.[10] He married[3] 24 Feb 1715,[11,5,3] Elizabeth Russell,[2] born 12 May 1695,[11] (daughter of John Russell and Martha Graves) died 11 Oct 1766,[11,10,20,2] buried in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[10] Ephraim died 23 Jul 1761,[2,10,20] buried in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[10] In The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, page 830 of Volume II, Moses Williams (1720-1810) is listed as a son of Ephraim. It shows this Moses and the Moses Williams of Jacob Jr. as both being married to Martha Robbins (of Richard and Martha (Curtis) Robbins). We do not believe this Moses of Ephraim ever existed. The only proof of the existence of this Moses Williams (of Ephraim), and his marriage to Martha Robbins, is a brief mention of him as a child of Ephraim by Sarah Goodrich Williams in her Descendants of Thomas Williams unpublished manuscript, but there are no Wethersfield records to confirm this. She details Moses Williams (of Jacob Jr.) and his marriage to Martha Robbins.[10]

18. Eunice Williams,[17] (6.Abraham[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 20 Jul 1704 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[11,2,5,3] She married Obadiah Dickinson.[17] Reference The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, Volume 2 - On page 110 in the Borman Family section, it has Eunice Borman m/1, Ab'm Williams, and m/2, Obadiah Dickinson. Only the 5 children by Ab'm Williams are listed here. On page 289 in the Dickinson Family section, it says that Obadiah Dickinson married Eunice Williams, and they had a son, Obadiah Jr., born 15 Jun 1730. On page 830 in the Thomas Williams Family section, it says that Eunice Williams married Obadiah Dickinson, and they had Obadiah Jr. The birth dates of Eunice Borman (1682), Eunice Williams (1704), and Obadiah Dickinson, Jr. (1730), are the main reasons for the way these families are listed. If Eunice Borman had had Obadiah Jr., she would have been age 48.
Page 278: On 10 March 1735, Daniel Deming married Eunice, daughter of Abraham Williams. If this is the same Eunice, Daniel could be either her first or second husband. Daniel would be her first if Eunice had not married Obadiah. If Obadiah died after the birth of Obadiah Jr., Daniel could be her second husband. What possibilities there are![2]

Child:

i Obadiah Dickinson, Jr., born 15 Jun 1730.[2,5]

In The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, there is an unknown Phinehas Andrus that married an unknown Lois Williams. This data is based on assumption that this is the Lois Williams of Jacob Williams (2).

Children:

i Keturah Andrus, born 14 Nov 1752 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2]
ii Appleton Andrus, baptized 14 Aug 1757.[2]
iii Phinehas Andrus, born 19 Jul 1763 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2] baptized 24 Jul 1763.[2]

25. Ann Williams, (10.Jacob[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 05 May 1722 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,5,3] She married 22 Feb 1750,[2] Justus Wright, born 05 Mar 1724.[2]

Children:

i Eunice Wright, born 14 Mar 1751.[2]
ii Charles Wright, born 06 Sep 1752.[2]
iii Ann Wright, born 14 Nov 1753.[2]
iv Giles Wright, born 10 Jan 1756.[2]

26. Moses Williams, (10.Jacob[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 21 Sep 1729 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2,5,3] He married 04 or 14 Dec 1751,[3,2,5] Martha Robbins,[3] born 19 Mar 1732 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2] (daughter of Richard Robbins and Martha Curtis) died 03 Feb 1788 of cancer.[10,2] Moses died 07 Feb 1810.[10,2]

58. viii William Williams born 22 Nov 1758.
59. ix Joshua Williams born 03 Feb 1761.
60. x John Williams born 18 Jul 1763.
xi Wait Williams, baptized 23 Dec 1764 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[11,10,2] 29. David Williams, (11.Ephraim[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 12 May 1729 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[11,5,2,3] baptized 18 May 1729.[2] He married 09 Nov 1752,[5,2] Anne Deming.[3] Williams Genealogy, Wethersfield, Cromwell Branch, by Murray Edward Poole, has David Williams (of Jacob Williams & Sarah Gilbert) married 1st, Mehitable; married 2nd, Nov 9, 1754, Anne Deming. Children of David & Mehitable are listed as George (b.1730), Jehiel (b.1733), Absalom (b.1734), Othniel (b.1737), and David (b.1744). Children of David & Anne are listed as Sarah (b.1754), Martha (b.1759), Elias (b.1762), and Lucy (b.1764). There is no wife or children shown for the David Williams (of Ephraim Williams & Elizabeth Russell). The families are shown in this book as they are in The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut.

Children:

i Sarah Williams,[3] born 27 Nov 1754 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[5,2] baptized 08 Dec 1754.[2]

ii Lois Williams, baptized 31 Oct 1756.[2]

iii Martha Williams,[3] born 22 Mar 1759 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[5,2] baptized 25 Mar 1759.[2]

iv Elias Williams,[3] born 14 Nov 1762 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[5,2] baptized 14 Nov 1862.[2] He married 1787,[2] Mary Dimock. According to page 832 of The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, there was an Elias Williams (of Ephraim Williams & Ruth Butler) that married a Mary Dimock in 1787, and another Elias Williams (of David Williams & Anne Deming) that also married a Mary Dimock in 1787. Since we cannot prove if just one, or both, marriages are correct, both of them are shown. According to page 301 of this same book, Mary Dimock (of Joseph Dimock & Elizabeth Williams) was baptized 3 Jan 1765, married Elias Williams, Jr. in 1787, and died 3 Dec 1788 in her 24th year. If this is true, then there are 3 Mary Dimock's, since neither of the previous 2 Elias Williams was a "Jr." I think there was only one Mary Dimock, and only one marriage to an Elias Williams, but I am not sure which Elias that would be! My "best guess" would be for the Elias of Ephraim, since Ephraim's father was Elias. There is no Elias in the lineage of Elias of David.[2]

v Lucy Williams,[3] born 16 Jul 1764 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[5,2]

30. John Williams, (12.Stephen[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 04 Feb 1719 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,5] He married 25 Mar 1742,[3,5,2] Esther Robbins,[3] born 10 May 1720 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[2] (daughter of Richard Robbins and Martha Curtis). John died 10 Nov 1748.[5,3]

Children:

i Mehitabel Williams, born 10 May 1743.[3,5]

ii Frederick Williams, born 05 Dec 1745,[3,5] died 1748.[5]

iii Abigail Williams, born 03 Oct 1747.[3,5] One source has her born 16 Oct 1746, which is possible, but not probable.[3]

31. Stephen Williams,[3,3] (12.Stephen[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]). He married 25 Jun 1745,[3,5] Elizabeth Robbins,[3] born 04 Jul 1723,[2] (daughter of Richard Robbins and Martha Curtis). Stephen died about 1748.[14]

Child:

i Oswald Williams, born 16 Oct 1746 in Connecticut.[3,5,2,21] He married Mary Brattle Williams.[21] Oswald died 10 Oct 1831 in Massachusetts.[21] Oswald served as a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War.[21]

32. Solomon Williams, (13.Daniel[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 02 Sep 1732 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[3,5,2] baptized 03 Sep 1732.[2] He married 21 Nov 1754,[3,5,2] Lydia Francis.[3] Solomon was a soldier in Capt. William Pitkins' Co., Col. Jos. Pitkins' Regt., in the French War, 1757.

Child:

i Solomon Williams, born 27 Feb 1756,[3,5,2] died 10 Dec 1784.[2]

33. Caleb Goodrich, (14.Sarah[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 01 Sep 1731 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[15] He married about 1758 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[15] Huldah Butler, born 15 Feb 1741 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[15] (daughter of Thomas Butler and Sarah Churchill) died 07 Jul 1809 in Benson, Rutland County, Vermont. Caleb died 27 Jul 1777 in Pittsfield, Berkshire County, Massachusetts.

Child:

61. i Josiah Goodrich born 28 Mar 1770.

34. Jehiel Williams, (15.David[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 16 Feb 1733 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[5,3,2] baptized 18 Feb 1733 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[2] He married 06 Jan 1756,[3] Anne Edwards,[2] born 1735,[3] (daughter of David Edwards) died 20 Nov 1810.[3] Jehiel died 13 Jun 1810 in Upper Middletown (now Cromwell), Connecticut.[3] Jehiel served in both the French & Indian War and the Revolutionary War.

64. iv Anne Williams born 11 Sep 1762.

65. v Wait Williams born 16 Apr 1764.

66. vi Jehiel Williams born 27 Nov 1765.

vii Mary Williams, born 08 Mar 1767,[3] died 17 Mar 1837.[3]

67. viii Josiah Williams born 15 Sep 1768.

68. ix Sarah Williams born 12 Mar 1770.

69. x Abigail Williams born 11 Mar 1772.

xi Luther Williams, born 06 Oct 1773,[3] died 13 or 31 May 1796 at sea.[3]

xii Joseph Williams, born 23 Sep 1775,[3] died 12 Apr 1777.[3]

70. xiii Chloe Williams born 19 Jan 1777.

35. Absalom Williams,[2] (15.David[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 22 Oct 1734 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[5,3,2] He married 1760,[2] Prudence Williams,[3] born about 1723,[2] died 12 Jan 1799.[2] Absalom was a Captain in the Revolutionary War.

Children:

i Mehitabel Williams, born 06 Apr 1762 in Wethersfield, Connecticut,[3,5,2] baptized 11 Apr 1762.[2]
ii Prudence Williams, born 21 Apr 1764 in Wethersfield, Connecticut.[3,5,2]

119. Levi Williams, (55.Ephraim[5], 28.Elias[4], 11.Ephraim[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) (See marriage to # 54 on page 625.)

120. Elias Williams, (55.Ephraim[5], 28.Elias[4], 11.Ephraim[3], 4.Jacob[2], 1.Thomas[1]) born 1768.[2] He married (1) 1787,[2] Mary Dimock, born 1764,[2] baptized 03 Jan 1765,[2] died 03 Dec 1788.[2] He married (2) Christian Williams, born about 1770,[2] baptized 09 Dec 1770,[2] died 29 Jul 1794.[2] Elias died 15 Mar 1801.[2] According to page 832 of The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, there was an Elias Williams (of Ephraim Williams & Ruth Butler) that married a Mary Dimock in 1787, and another Elias Williams (of David Williams & Anne Deming) that also married a Mary Dimock in 1787. Since we cannot prove if just one, or both, marriages are correct, both of them are shown. According to page 301 of this same book, Mary Dimock (of Joseph Dimock & Elizabeth Williams) was baptized 3 Jan 1765, married Elias Williams, Jr. in 1787, and died 3 Dec 1788 in her 24th year. If this is true, then there are 3 Mary Dimock's, since neither of the previous 2 Elias Williams was a "Jr." I think there was only one Mary Dimock, and only one marriage to an Elias Williams, but I am not sure which Elias that would be! My "best guess" would be for the Elias of Ephraim, since Ephraim's father was Elias. There is no Elias in the lineage of Elias of David.[2]

Children by Mary Dimock:

i Mary Williams, baptized 02 Dec 1788,[2] died in infancy.
ii Mary Williams, baptized 02 Dec 1789,[2] died 25 Apr 1809.[2]

CHAPTER 3

MILES WILLIAMS

1. Miles Williams,[1] born 1696 in Wales.[2,3,4,5] He married 09 Oct 1720,[2] Phebe.[2] Miles died 27 Oct 1747 in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[4] buried in Presbyterian Church yard, Westfield, New Jersey.[6]

The parentage of Miles Williams is unknown. The only thing that we know of Miles parents is from Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, by Tenney Smith. On pages 290-291, Tenney admits knowing only that Miles' father is named Samuel, and then he selected one of the Samuels in his book as Miles' father. We cannot fit Miles as a son of any Samuel in this book. Miles' father may not even be a Samuel, and Miles may be his middle name. In Genealogies of New Jersey Families, on page 995, Miles and his family are detailed, but there is no mention of Miles' parents.

Most sources show Miles as being the son of Samuel Williams & Mary Stebbins, and that Miles was born in 1696 or 1697. In The History of Ancient Wethersfield, the family of Samuel Williams & Mary Stebbins is shown on page 825, and duplicated on page 829. The data on page 829 appears to be erroneous, because on this page Samuel's marriage date and the birth dates of all his children occur after he died. Even though Miles is not listed in this book, Samuel & Mary Stebbins (page 825) could be his parents by squeezing him in as their first child. Samuel Williams (page 829) & Abigail could also be Miles parents, if the "before 5 Feb 1692" death date of this Samuel is wrong.

After considering all of the above, the following Miles Williams chapter is included in this genealogy. There is a possibility that Matthew, Thomas, Miles, and Swain were related in some unknown way. Whatever the ultimate outcome of further research, the descendants listed in this chapter will know their lineage back to this Miles Williams.

Children:

2. i John Williams born 1722.
3. ii Samuel Williams born 1723 or 1724.
   iii Ann Williams,[6] born in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[2]
   iv Squier Williams,[6] born in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[2]
4. v Joshua Williams born 1735.

Second Generation

2. John Williams,[6] (1.Miles[1]) born 1722 in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[2,4] He married 18 Feb 1748 in Hanover Presbyterian Church, Hanover, Morris County, New Jersey,[4] Rachel Wade, born 1730,[2,3] died 19 Feb 1794.[4,3,5] John died 11 Apr 1782 in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[4,5,3] buried in Elizabeth Cemetery, Elizabeth, New Jersey.[7]

5. ii Noah Williams born 20 Aug 1751.

iii Cornelius Williams,[2] born 20 Dec 1753.[4,5] He married Betsey Reddin, born about 1763 in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[2] died 02 Nov 1818.[8] Cornelius died 28 Aug 1828 in New Providence, New Jersey,[8] buried in Presbyterian Church yard, New Providence, New Jersey.[9] They had no children. Cornelius was in the Revolutionary War as a private in the Somerset Co. Militia .

6. iv Henry Williams born 19 Dec 1755.
7. v David Williams born 27 Jul 1758.
8. vi Squire Williams born 04 Oct 1760.
9. vii Smith Williams born 24 Nov 1762.
10. viii Ezekiel Williams born 19 Aug 1765.

ix Abner Williams,[2] born 19 Apr 1767.[4,5] (moved south - never married).

x Lewis Williams,[2] born 11 Sep 1770.[4,5] He married Chloe Campbell.[2]

3. Samuel Williams,[1] (1.Miles[1]) born 1723 or 1724 in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[2,10,11] He married (1) Mary Norris,[2,1] (daughter of Samuel Norris). He married (2) 1754,[1] Elenor,[1] born 1733,[2] died 22 Oct 1777,[12] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey. He married (3) 04 May 1778,[1,10] Jane, born 1734,[2] died 20 Feb 1807 in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[12] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey. Samuel died 20 Oct 1801,[12,4,10,11] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[7] Samuel served as a Private in the Revolutionary War. He had 17 children; 15 listed below, and 2 unidentified. Lived at Williams' Farms.[11]

Children by Mary Norris:

i Abigail Williams, born 03 Nov 1742.[1,10] She married 28 Mar 1762 in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[13,14] Daniel Halsey,[1] (son of Joseph Halsey).

ii John F. Williams, born 1745,[2] died 22 Jan 1747, buried in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.

iii Phebe Williams, born 08 Jun 1750.[2,10] She married Jonathan Miller, Jr., born 1747,[2] died 1812.[1] Phebe died 1827.[1]

iv Sarah Williams, born 11 Jun 1754.[1,10] She married David Spencer.[1]

Children by Elenor:

11. v Samuel Williams born 19 Sep 1755.

vi Benjamin Williams, born 04 Mar 1757,[1,10] died 25 Oct 1785.[7]

vii David Williams, "Jr.",[1] born 10 Nov 1759 in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[4,10] He married 29 Nov 1780,[6] Elizabeth, born about 1763,[6] died 16 Mar 1822,[4] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex County, New Jersey.[12,4] David died 16 Dec 1843,[2] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex County, New Jersey.[4] David of Samuel of Miles and David of John of Miles are often confused. The record that we present here is correct. These 2 Davids are first cousins, grandchildren of Miles Williams.

On 8 Oct 1834, David applied for a pension for his service in the Revolutionary War. He refers to himself as "David Williams, Junior", although he was not a son of a David. He refers to himself as "Jr.", to distinguish himself from his older cousin David (b.27 Jul 1758). He states in his Declaration that he "Was born in the Township of Elizabeth in that part now set off and known as the Township of Union in the Said County of Essex and State of New Jersey on the 10th day of November 1759. And was seventy four years old last November, according to his Family Record which is now in his possession, which was entered in his Family Bible from the record kept by his Father Samuel Williams, deceased many years ago."

viii Jedediah Williams, born 09 Jan 1761,[1,10] died 10 Mar 1826.[2]

12. ix Joel Williams born 15 Jan 1765.

x Anna Williams,[1,15] born 14 Sep 1766.[2,10] She married Jacob Searing.[2] Jacob - (DAR 125895, 132418).

13. xi John F. Williams born 10 Aug 1768.

xii Hannah Williams,[1] born 16 May 1770.[2,10] She married Mr. Garthwait.[2]

14. xiii Moses Williams born 18 Aug 1772.
15. xiv Nathaniel Williams born 05 Jul 1774.

xv Mary "Polly" Williams,[1] born 12 Jul 1776.[2,10] She married Mr. Williams.[2]

4. Joshua Williams, (1.Miles[1]) born 1735 in Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[2,11] He married[16] 26 Nov 1758 in St. John's Church, Elizabeth, New Jersey,[2] Sarah Higgins.[2] Joshua died 1790.[6,11] Joshua served in the Revolutionary War, and was a Minuteman of New Jersey. One source says Joshua and Sarah had 3 children. We know only the 2 listed below.[11]

Children:

i Miles Williams, baptized 16 Mar 1765 in Presbyterian Church, Westfield, New Jersey.[6]

ii David Williams, baptized 19 Feb 1769 in Presbyterian Church, Westfield, New Jersey.[6]

ii Noah Williams.[2] He married Polly Pool,[9,6] (daughter of John Pool).

16. iii Rachel Williams born 1776.

iv Daniel Williams,[2] died in New York.[6]

v Abigail Williams.[2] She married 12 Oct 1805 in Morris County, New Jersey, by Rev. Matthew La Rue Perrine,[16,17] William High, born 19 Dec 1777,[2] (son of Jacob High).

17. vi Abner Williams.

6. Henry Williams, (2.John[2], 1.Miles[1]) born 19 Dec 1755.[4,5] He married (1) 13 Mar 1780 in Westfield, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey,[2] Lydia Youmans.[2] He married (2) Elizabeth "Betsey" Scudder.[2,8] Henry died 1808.[2] In the Revolutionary War, Sgt. Henry Williams served in Capt. Benjamin Williams Co. (DAR file S-1153). Have also seen name spelled Yeomans.

Children by Lydia Youmans:

Benjamin Woodruff,[4] Elizabeth F. Cozens, born about 1762,[2] died 28 Apr 1848,[4] buried First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[12] David died 01 Aug 1841,[2,4,11] buried in First Presbyterian Church Yard, Elizabeth, Essex (now Union) County, New Jersey.[12] David of Samuel of Miles and David of John of Miles are often confused. The record that we present here is correct. These 2 Davids are first cousins, grandchildren of Miles Williams.[11] David's declaration in his Revolutionary War pension papers dated 17 August 1832 states that "He was born in the Township of Elizabeth in that part now set off as the Township of Rahway in the said County of Essex and State of New Jersey on the 27th day of July 1758, and was seventy four years old last July according to his Family Record which is now in his possession." Inscription on David's tombstone is "A Soldier of the Revolution".

SWAIN WILLIAMS

1. Swain O. Williams,[1,2,2] born about 1816 New Jersey,[1] occupation Farmer. He married (1) Phoebe Peffers, born 1812 New Jersey,[1] (daughter of David Elijah Peffers and Mary "Polly" Williams) died 09 Mar 1851,[2,1] buried Jersey Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Jersey, Licking County, Ohio.[1] He married (2) about 1852,[2] Mary Ann Philbrook,[2] born May 1825 Ohio,[1] (daughter of Cyrus Philbrook and Ann C. Martin) died 22 Sep 1906 Elwood, Madison County, Indiana,[2] buried 24 Sep 1906 Crown Point Cemetery, Kokomo, Howard County, Indiana. Swain died 07 Nov 1884 Center Township, Howard County, Indiana,[2] buried 08 Nov 1884 Crown Point Cemetery (lot #60), Kokomo, Howard County, Indiana. Swain died of stomach cancer.

Since the parentage of Swain O. Williams is unknown, the complete line of Swain Williams is not shown in Chapter 1. Phoebe Peffers, Swain's first wife, is a descendant of Matthew Williams (1), and for that reason Swain & Phoebe's children are listed in Chapter 1. Mary Ann Philbrook, Swain's second wife, is shown here with Swain & Mary Ann's descendants. We believe that Swain is a descendant of Matthew Williams (1), but we cannot prove it at this time.

After considering all of the above, the following Swain Williams chapter is included in this genealogy. There is a possibility that Matthew, Thomas, Miles, and Swain were related in some unknown way. Whatever the ultimate outcome of further research, the descendants listed in this chapter will know their lineage back to this Swain Williams.

APPENDIX 1

MATTHEW WILLIAMS OF WETHERSFIELD, CONNECTICUT

(The author of this genealogy, Fred R. Williams of North Augusta, South Carolina, asked me to prepare the first 14 appendixes for this book because of my some twenty-seven years research involving Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT. Moreover, I've published three Williams's genealogies about Matthew Williams and his descendants, as indicated in the Bibliography.
Lyle K. Williams, Fort Worth, TX.)

The basic source for the many genealogies on Matthew Williams was The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut (1904), by Henry R. Stiles (hereinafter, Stiles). This is a massive two-volume history of Wethersfield and includes the genealogies for some of the first settlers.

Unfortunately, Stiles has errors and some conflicting data but, nevertheless, it is the only early record for Matthew Williams. Some 20 genealogies concerning Matthew Williams have perpetuated the errors found in Stiles. One of the prime objectives of this genealogy is to identify such errors and correct them.

A few relevant pages from Stiles (Vol. II, pages 823, 824, 825) are reproduced in Appendix 3 to serve as an easy reference when discussing the life and lineage of Matthew Williams. Stiles, apparently, relied on the public records of Connecticut to the extent available and filled in a good part of the narrative from two descendants named in Appendix 3. These descendants seemingly augmented the public record by family records, including family tradition handed down generation by generation. It should be kept in mind that there was a span of about 270 years when Matthew arrived in Wethersfield and when Stiles, in 1904, set down his account.

The Revolutionary War and other factors resulted in the loss of many public records. One may hope that an old letter, a family Bible, or other such record may, some day, be found that could add to the saga of Matthew Williams. The Great Migration Project now underway by The New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, MA, may eventually shed light on Matthew Williams, such as the year he arrived in America and from what port.

Matthew Williams was not a prominent or wealthy colonist, and, thus, there would be very little information to be found in the media articles or public journals or records. There is no record of his being a landowner, but in Wethersfield he was assigned a cattle mark. Perhaps a family milk cow grazed on "The Common". The existing skimpy public records of births, marriages, deaths, land transactions, and court actions are all one has to go on.

In order to correct the record, controversial or incorrect items will be identified and discussed below.

Item 1. Date of birth for Matthew Williams and that of his wife, Susannah (Cole) Williams, Stiles Vol. II, page 823, gives a date of about 1605 when Matthew Williams was born, and in Wales. He shows no date for Susannah, but a date of about 1623 for her, seems probably reasonable based on the date of birth of her first child in 1645. Dr. Thompson (Appendix 9) believes the date of about 1605 for Matthew Williams was estimated in order to accommodate an alleged first marriage and four children, Thomas, Mary, Ruth, and John Williams. These four children undoubtedly existed but were not children of Matthew Williams. See item 7 below. Dr. Thompson also believes that the sexual misdeeds of Matthew Williams suggests the wrongdoing of a younger man, probably "fifteen years younger or born about 1620". We have tried to be more precise in estimating his date of birth, and we will commence with trying to determine the year of his arrival in Wethersfield (Stiles Vol. I, pages 28-31, and Stiles Vol. II, pages 824-825).

Some family genealogists include Matthew as one of the "seven" founders of Wethersfield (Stiles Vol. II, page 824). But on pages 28-29 of Vol. I, Stiles identifies 10 men, known as "adventurers" who were "settlers" by 1634. They were there in person or by representation and were from Watertown, MA. Additional settlers came from Watertown by 1641. Then the third wave, nearly all from places other than Watertown, came between 1636 and 1640; none later than 1645; Matthew Williams and James Cole 2nd, are among this latter group. Since Matthew Williams did not come from Wales (Appendix 7), he almost surely came from England. James Cole, "said to be a brother of Susannah", was from England (see Item 9 below).

It may be reasonably assumed that Matthew Williams was a young man on arrival, perhaps around the age of 21. We know he sired Amos in 1644 (born 1645). This suggests a birth date for Matthew Williams at about 1623.

Stiles, in naming the early settlers, obviously recorded only male adults. Thus, Susannah Cole was not among the names reflected as an early settler. Women married early in Colonial times, and her age can be fairly estimated based on the birth of her first child born out of wedlock in 1645. Assuming she was about 19 when Amos was born, this places her date of birth at about 1626, or three years younger than her husband, Matthew Williams.

Item 2. Date and place of death for Matthew and Susannah Williams

Stiles, page 824 of Vol. II, gives Matthew's date of death as being about 1679, Wethersfield. He gives no date of death for Susannah but shows her as a "widow in 1680, as she and her three sons prepared to depart from Connecticut". She did not leave Wethersfield and died there, with one son, Amos. Her other two sons, Matthew Williams (2) and Samuel migrated to New Jersey.

The approximate time for the deaths of Matthew and Susannah is known from a report by Gale Ion Harris, J.D., Ph.D., FASG. See Appendix 11.

Matthew Williams died, Wethersfield, after 13 November 1654 and before 8 July 1659. Susannah died in Wethersfield after 8 July 1659 and before 5 May 1662, when her small estate was proved.

Item 3. Matthew Williams' Lineage

See Appendix 13 for efforts to find Matthew Williams' Lineage.

Item 4. Matthew and Thomas Williams – early settlers

Using The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, by Stiles, as the best, but imperfect record available, it is believed that only two Williams families were among the early settlers in Wethersfield: Matthew and Thomas Williams. The noted Williams family of Wethersfield, who arrived later, were descendants of Robert Williams of Roxbury. His great-grandson, Elisha Williams, born 25 August 1694, was the first. (Authority: The Ancestors and Descendants of Ezekiel Williams of Wethersfield (1608-1907), compiled by Mary Dyer (Williams) McLean, 1907.

If Thomas and Matthew Williams were the only two early families, as it seems, then contemporary unidentified Williams' family members, in early Wethersfield, were probably connected in some manner to them. See Appendix 13.

Item 5. Matthew Williams' residence in America

Stiles, page 824 of Vol. II, says Matthew Williams seems to have been for a time in Watertown, MA, before going to Wethersfield, CT. Other genealogies have said he was in Watertown for two years but did not validate their statements. Matthew Williams was in the "third wave" of Wethersfield settlers who came from places other than Watertown, some directly from England (Stiles Vol. I, page 30).

Stiles, page 825 of Vol. II, says Matthew Williams was on Long Island for a time and eventually at Barbadoes, though still a householder at Wethersfield where his family was living. That he returned in 1678. This was not Matthew Williams (1) of Wethersfield who died between 1654-1659. It may have been his son, Matthew Williams (2), who arrived in New Jersey sometime after his brother Samuel Williams.

"Matthew (2) also visited the Barbadoes (Hotten's Register) returning to New York with a servant and James Maynard, 14th Jan 1678." Source for this observation, Virginia A. Brown, Genealogist, of Phillipsburg, NJ, in a letter dated 17th Nov 2000. Further, according to Mrs. Brown, "Matthew (2) went to Newark, and was admitted a Planter 29th Nov 1680, with four others 'provided they pay the purchase of what land they have as other Planters have done'."

Item 6. Matthew Williams' occupation in Wethersfield, CT

Matthew Williams was a brick-maker and possibly a farmer, as he was assigned a cattle mark.

Francis Brazley Lee, Vol. III, page 1222, Genealogical and Memorial History of the State of New Jersey says of Matthew Williams, "He was a brick-maker by trade and a yeoman, which is proved by the earmarks of his cattle, which were recorded in the records." (A yeoman in colonial times was in a class below the gentry, who worked his own land; a small land owner.) Lee apparently assumes that since Matthew Williams was assigned cattle marks, he was thus a farmer and entitled to the title of Yeoman. Yet, Dr. Thompson says, "He was not even styled as 'mister'—a term of respect—due to his unsavory personal record. (Appendix 10.)

Item 7. Matthew Williams' alleged first marriage and four additional children.

Matthew Williams is shown in some genealogies as having a first marriage.

Based on the research of Dr. Thompson, Appendix 9, a first marriage and four additional children, John, Thomas, Mary, and Ruth, cannot be validated.

- Ruth Williams, page 825 of Stiles Vol. II, lists Matthew Williams' four children and then by footnote says, "Miss Lyons' record gives a daughter, Ruth, born between the two Matthews, who m. Caleb Pierson and died before 1860, but of this we have no record." Dr. Thompson, Appendix 9, says, "Ruth, as a dau. of Matthew, is not approved by The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, and is in fact pure speculation."

- Mary Williams, b. c1631, married 22 Dec. 1647, Hartford, CT, Joshua Jennings. Mary died 27 March 1697. Stiles Vol. I, page 281, says Mary Williams was perhaps a daughter of Matthew Williams. No evidence. See Appendix 9.

- John Williams, b. c1631; casual mention in Stiles, page 197, Vol. I. Stiles links him as a brother to Amos Williams, son of Matthew Williams. Thus, John becomes a son of Matthew Williams, but the children listed on pages 197 and 198 are confused with the children of Thomas.

In summary, Dr. Thompson concludes in Appendix 9 these individuals probably existed, but no proof that they were children of Matthew Williams. It is perhaps the reason they did exist and improperly identified caused some genealogist to reason there must have been a first marriage.

Item 8. Catalogue of the Names of the First Puritan Settlers of the Colony of Connecticut with Their Arrival in America, by R. R. Hinman, page 99.

Reflects a Matthew Williams of Hartford in 1646. It is possible that this was our Matthew Williams who was in nearby Wethersfield in 1644, as no other Matthew Williams is known to be in the area during this time.

Item 9. Williams-Cole Connection.

Matthew Williams married Susannah Cole. A James Cole (2^{nd}) arrived in Wethersfield, CT at about the same time as Matthew Williams. Stiles, page 198 of Vol. I, says: "Amos, John and Thomas Williams are shown as residents of Rocky Hill, along with 'Samuel Cole'." Some have speculated that Samuel Cole was the father of James Cole (2^{nd}), perhaps the brother of Susannah Cole. No proof was found of Susannah's relationship except, since there were such few Coles in early Wethersfield, there undoubtedly was a relationship.

APPENDIX 2

THE LINEAGE OF MATTHEW WILLIAMS

In Appendix 1, an effort was made to show that all-subsequent genealogies on Matthew Williams - and there were at least 20 known versions - were based on the account in The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, by Stiles. Stiles also connected Thomas Williams of Wethersfield, Connecticut, to Matthew Williams of Wethersfield.

Stiles connected both Thomas and Matthew Williams as sons of Richard Williams of Taunton. And since Richard Williams of Taunton, had been traced, erroneously, to the 10th century Wales and a connection to Oliver Cromwell, born and married as Oliver Williams, subsequent genealogies with respect to Matthew Williams show him as being born in Wales and with the same connection to the Cromwell branch of the family. For details, see Appendix items 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 9, which, in effect, nullify all the lineage connections. In short, Richard Williams' (of Taunton) father was William Williams, and his grandfather was John Williams. The College of Arms (Appendix 6) says that due to the absence of records, this John Williams cannot be traced back any further.

The various appendix items, especially Appendix 5, disprove Stiles' theory that Matthew Williams was the son of Richard Williams. Richard Williams' nine children are well researched and Matthew Williams was not his son (Appendix 4).

The lineage of Thomas and Matthew Williams is not known, but see Appendix 13 for clues for additional research that is beyond our resources at this time.

To aid further research, a few selected genealogies are listed which perpetuated the errors found in Stiles, and which, in themselves, undoubtedly caused others to perpetuate the same errors. A vicious cycle!

1. The Genealogical and Memorial History of the State of New Jersey, pages 1221-1222 of Volume III, 1910, by Francis Bazley Lee. Lee states, "William Williams (father of Richard Williams of Taunton) had a brother, Richard Williams." He states "this Richard Williams had at least two sons, Matthew and Thomas Williams, who were cousins to Richard Williams of Taunton." He cites the Will of William Williams as evidence for this statement. However, the Will of William Williams (as shown in Appendix 6) makes no mention of a brother, Richard Williams, but does mention his son, Richard Williams of Taunton. Thus, this Will cannot be accepted as evidence of Matthew Williams' lineage.

2. Ancestry of RICHARD and FRANCES DIGHTON WILLIAMS, of Taunton, Mass., And their posterity. By Charles C. Williams, M.D. A copy of the manuscript is in Salt Lake City Family Library, LDS (FHL 897647). He traces Richard Williams of Taunton to Wales in the 10th century. But we know now (Appendix 4) that Richard Williams of Taunton was the son of William Williams of County Gloucester and the grandson of John Williams. The lineage of John Williams cannot be traced further back because of the absence of records (Appendix 6).

   Dr. Charles C. Williams was the 8th generation from Richard Williams of Taunton. Apparently, this manuscript never reached the published stage. Typewritten copies seem to have been made and distributed. The copy in the Family History Library, LDS, Salt Lake City, a photocopy of which we have received, has the following on the lower part of the title page:

   > "This is the latest and most complete record of the Richard Williams family, the result of more than forty years of labor by Hon. Josiah H. Drummond, the New England Antiquarian, and Dr. Charles C. Williams of Boston and Los Angeles. Dr. Williams, after the death of Drummond, kept on with this work, assisted by many genealogists and descendants of the Williams family. In this work is included corrected accounts of all published records of this family in existence, with much new material compiled from many different and authentic sources.
   > Typewritten by Adelaide H. Knight,
   > Spencer, Iowa,
   > 1928."

   This manuscript references another manuscript between the years 1600-1607, edited by John A. Rodney, London, 1910; copy in the Boston Public Library.

   In this manuscript, Dr. Charles C. Williams traces the line from Wales in the 10th century and with a connection to Oliver Cromwell, born and married under the name Oliver Williams. Thus, many Williams' genealogies thereafter alluded to the Welsh and Oliver Cromwell connection. But as is pointed out in Appendix 6, the lineage of Richard Williams' grandfather, John Williams, is the farthest that can be traced due to the absence of records.

3. The connection of Roger Williams to Matthew Williams.

Contributions - Biographical, Genealogical and Historical, by Ebenezer Weaver Pierce, pp. 400-409. Pierce links Richard Williams to the Oliver Cromwell family and postulates a belief that Richard Williams was a natural brother of the more renowned Roger Williams. Other genealogists have postulated this theory, but it is not factual. See Appendix 12 for the genealogy of Roger Williams.

The Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England by James Savage, links Roger Williams as the son of William Williams, father of Richard Williams of Taunton, MA. Again, see Appendix 12 for Roger Williams' genealogy.

Other Publications. A number of publications have speculated that Roger Williams, Richard Williams of Taunton, and Oliver Cromwell (born Oliver Williams) were all descendants of the same family in Wales. But the genealogy of Roger Williams disproves this theory. See Appendix 12.

4. The New England Historic and Genealogical Register, April 1897, pages 202-212 of Vol. LI. The article is complimentary of the late Hon. Joseph Hartwell Williams, ex-governor of Maine, a descendant of Richard Williams of Taunton, for "tracing the line Robert William (Williams), the ancestor of Oliver Cromwell. It is now known that the line cannot be traced further than Richard Williams' grandfather, John Williams of Gloucestershire, England. See Appendix 6.

5. In The Genealogy and History of the Family of Williams in America, more particularly of the descendants of Robert Williams of Roxbury. 1847, by Stephen West Williams, no connection to Matthew Williams of Wethersfield was found.

For this same family, a genealogy was published, The Ancestors and Descendants of Ezekiel Williams of Wethersfield (1608-1907) by Mary Dyer (Williams) McLean (1907). Descendants of Robert Williams of Roxbury. Matthew and Thomas Williams are mentioned on page 1 of the Introduction as being "early settlers of Wethersfield". The first settler in Wethersfield from Robert Williams of Roxbury was his great-grandson, Elisha Williams, and Ezekiel was his nephew. But this prominent family arrived much later than Matthew Williams.

6. William Williams was born in 1623, and by 1646 he was in Hartford, CT as a cooper. He married Jane Westover, 25 Nov 1647, and had nine children. No connection to Matthew Williams could be found. This was a brief research article by Gale Ion Harris, Ph.D., that appeared in The American Genealogist, Vol. 69, #2, pages 87-94, and supplemented by an article in The American Genealogist, Vol. 71, #1, page 50.

7. Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, by Tenney Smith, contains a chapter on the Williams family as extracted from The Lyon Memorial, Families of Connecticut and New Jersey, by Sidney Elizabeth Lyon. This traces the family back to Oliver Cromwell, which now is known to be incorrect. The genealogy, Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, adds a new element however; viz., Matthew Williams sailed from the port of Glasgow, Scotland in 1635; spent two years in Watertown and there married Elizabeth Conant, who had come from Aberdeen, Scotland. Matthew and Elizabeth had a daughter, Mary Williams, born to them in 1637, Wethersfield, CT. Neil D. Thompson, Ph.D., C.G., of Salt Lake City, UT researched this account. His report may be found in Appendix 9. In summary, Dr. Thompson could find no evidence of Matthew Williams being in Watertown, MA, nor any Conant family that was relevant, or any record of a Matthew Williams sailing to America from Scotland. He mentions the "discredited" Cromwell connection from the Lyon Memorial, first published in 1907.

8. The above romance is also found in This is our Heritage, by Gladys A. Ingram, pages 52-53. "Another family tradition is that Matthew Williams, while yet a young man, fell in love with the daughter of a wealthy Englishman named Conant. He was opposed to their marriage. Young love conquered, however; the couple eloped, were married, and sailed for America before the parents knew they were missing. When Matthew died at their home in Wethersfield, the wife at once planned to return to England but died before the ship sailed. This must be put down for what it is – a tradition without foundation.

MATTHEW AND THOMAS WILLIAMS OF WETHERSFIELD AND NEW JERSEY

(Note: the following are excerpts from the two-volume The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut (1904), by Henry R. Stiles, A.M., M.D. These two volumes have numerous references to these two men throughout their pages; however, what is reproduced here is the genealogy for them as set forth by Stiles. We have commented on the accuracy of the genealogy in Appendix 1.

Pages 823, 824, 825, Volume II

THE MATTHEW AND THOMAS WILLIAMS LINES OF WETH. AND NEW JERSEY

"The Family of Matthew & Susannah Williams. - (Assistance acknowledged from Miss Sidney Lyon, of Jeffersonville, Ind.)

Matthew, b. abt 1605, in Wales, is supposed to have been the eld. son of Mr. Richard Williams, who came Glamorgan, Wales, to America, with his fam. 1620-21. One authority states that Richard had 4 sons; another that the ch. of Richard, an early settler at Taunton, Mass., were John, Samuel, Joseph, Nathaniel, Thomas and Benjamin, also a dau. Elizabeth (wife of John Bird), and a dau. Hannah (wife of John Parmeutor). Inasmuch as trad. also affirms that Matthew of Weth. was of an ancient Welsh fam. of Glamorganshire and a kindsman of Oliver Cromwell, a trad. claim of Richard Williams as well, and a claim moreover which is not common to the other pioneer Williams families of New Eng., it is believed that the full number of Richard Williams' ch. has not been credited in meagre colonial recs. and that he had seven sons.

This Richard Williams of Taunton, Mass., supp. to be the father of Matthew, the Weth. Settler, is ceded to be that R. Wms. of Aberpgraway, who m. Francis Dighton, sister of Katherine Dighton, second wife of Gov. Thos. Dudley, of Mass. However, he may have had a former wife, who accompanied him hither. The will of Jane Williams, spinster, of Whetenhurst, Co. Gloucester, 1650, leaves a pittance of remembrance to 'Brother Richard and sister Elizabeth Williams, that are in New Eng.,' a testamentary proof that Elizabeth, not Frances, was the name of the wife of Richard of Taunton of this date, thirty yrs. after his departure from Wales. Furthermore, there is another Old World will that throws a shaft of light into this time-dimmed knowledge, viz. that of Benj. Williams, of Guldeford, Co. Surrey, 1695, wherein it says, 'I give to my cousins, Samuel, Thomas, and Benjamin Williams, of New Eng., and to my cousin Elizabeth Bird of Dorchester, in New Eng., and to the eld. child of my cousin Williams, dec'd, in case there be any of them living, to each of them 20s., within one year of the dth. of the testator, etc.' Benjamin Williams of Surrey had evidently been in frequent communication with his kinspeople across the sea; and was aware of Richard Williams' death; dead, doubtless, for many yrs. past, John Williams had d. while yg. the names of his bros. as far as known, appear in the following order, Samuel, Joseph, Nathaniel, Thomas and Benjamin. A peculiar significance might be attached to the manner of mention of the 'the eld. ch. of my Cousin Williams, dec'd.' Primogeniture established a precedence in all things. Certainly, the eld. son of Richard Williams was better known, even if only by letter, to the Guldeford schoolmaster, than his bros. It is a plausible supposition that Matthew Williams was the unnamed heir to that one pound, in coin of the realm; he had early been estranged from his father thro' his rebellious attitude adopted towards the Gen. Ct. However, he was not wholly cut off from his people, for his bro. Thomas held him in such fraternal friendship that he soon followed him into those western wilds, and also sett. at Weth.

Matthew Williams seems to have been for a time at Watertown, Mass., from whence, like others, allured by the attractive reports of Oldham and Hall, the pioneer traders and explorers of the Connecticut Valley, he came to Pyquang, (now) Wethersfield. Some of his descendants are inclined to claim him as one of the 'seven founders' of the town; but Judge Adams' elaborate discussion of those 'adventurers' (as they are termed on Weth. Records) does not support this claim. The nearest date which we can depend upon, makes him here 'before 1645,' (see p.31, Vol.1); and that he was a 'brickmaker' by trade; and prob. farmed it also; as W.T.V. 1, p.6, contains the entry of his cattle ear-mark. Previous to 1644 he had m. Susanna _____, a girl of Eng. birth and supp. to have been a sister of James Cole, an early sett. at Weth., and in1639 an orig. planter at Htfd. After 1655 he was, for a time, on Long Island, and eventually at Barbadoes, though still a house holder at Weth., where his fam. was living. Hotten's Emigration Lists are auth. that on 14 Jan., 1678, he (if it be the same?) was granted a ticket of emigration from Barbadoes to the Colony, with his servant. His dth. prob. occurred the following yr. for, in 1680, his wid. Susannah, asked the Ct. at Weth. to appraise her est. and makes a petition to div. it betw. the sons. This step on her part prob. fixes a conclusive date for the departure from Conn. of the wid. and her sons, viz, Amos, now 35 yrs of age, with his wife and 3 ch.; Matthew, now 29 yrs. of age; and Samuel, ae. 27, prob. a widower.

Children (Weth. Rec.) :

1. Amos, b. 14 Mch., 1645-6. Fam. 2
2. Matthew, b. 27 Oct., 1647; d. inf.
3. Matthew, b. 14 May, 1651. See Williams, Appendix A.
4. Samuel, b. 4 Jan., 1653-4. See Williams, Appendix B.

(Miss Lyons' rec. gives a dau. Ruth, b. betw. the two Matthews,
m. Caleb Pierson, and d. before 1680, but of this we have no record.)"

THE ROCKY-HILL WILLIAMS FAMILIES

THE THOMAS WILLIAMS LINE

"(Much valuable help on this line, acknowledged from Miss Sarah Goodrich Williams, of Hartford, Ct.)

Thomas, poss. a bro. of Matthew; P. G. Woodward of Htfd. (a good authority, doubts this; (see p. 314, Vol.1). Of this Thomas, Savage knows but of only 7 of the births, and that he had a wife Rebecca is also known, but whether she was the only one is less clear. He made his will 20 Dec 1689, yet. prob. d. not before Feb., 1693; left wife and 8 ch." Weth. Rec., however, gives a list of 10 ch. with birth dates, and that he d. 5 Feb 1692, will being dated 20 Dec.; invent. est. being £132-15-00. Savage, in this case, as was his custom, places the dates a year later, whenever the births occurred in the months of Jan., Feb. and March.

Thomas Williams was prob. one of the very earliest settlers of the Rocky Hill dist. where, in 1661, he rec'd a gr. of 12 acr. on the River, near The Landing, having Joseph Smith as a neighbor. (See Chapt. VII, Vol.1). It is not prob., however, that he settled on this gr. but his son Thomas must have done so, abt. 1670. W.T.V. I (p.10), rec. his cattle earmark, and (p.19) the fact that he helped repair the Meeting-House. His name occurs in Mem. Hist. Htdd, Ct. (p.438), as among the first sett. of Branford, Ct., which was largely sett. by Weth. men.

Children: (Weth. Rec.) :

1. Thomas, b. 9 Mch., 1656-7. Fam. 2
2. Samuel, b. 11 June, 1659; d. before his father. Fam. 3.
3. John, b. 15 Apl., 1662. Fam. 4.
4. Jacob (Capt.) b. 7 Mch., 1664-5. Fam. 5.
5. Sarah, b. 18 Jan., 1666-7; d. 3 Sept., 1683.
6. Rebecca, b. 14 Mch., 1668-9.
7. Mary, b. 2 Apl., 1671; m. 1698, Thomas (gd-s. of Hon. John & Honor Treat) Deming.
8. Ruth, b. 1 Mch., 1673.
9. Hannah, b. 28 Aug., 1677.
10. Abraham, b. 23 Aug., 1680. Fam.6. "

(Note: Thomas and Rebecca (Waterhouse) Williams, and their ten children, are shown in Chapter 2. Although no connection to Matthew Williams of Wethersfield or Richard Williams of Taunton has been found, there is so much circumstantial evidence that his line is included for the purpose of aiding further research.)

APPENDIX 4

JOHN WILLIAMS, born c1535

(Grandfather of RICHARD WILLIAMS of Taunton, Massachusetts)

1. John Williams, of Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucester County, England, born c1535; buried in the churchyard of St. Mary the Virgin, 27 Aug 1578. His wife, whom he named executrix of his will in 1578, was Theobalde ___. Whether she is the mother of his children is unknown. Theobalde may have been that Tyboll Williams whose burial is recorded in the Registers of St. Mary the Virgin, 9 Jan 1608. His will, dated 17 Apr 1578, names a brother, Edmond Williams, who m. Joane ___. He names children:

2. i. William Williams, b. c1555.
   ii. John Wiliams.
   iii. Hugh Williams, "under 24 years of age in 1578", when named in will.
   iv. Frances Williams, "under 21 years of age in 1578", when named in will.

2. William Williams, of Synwell, Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucester County, was born about 1555, place unknown; bur. in Wotton-under-Edge, 29 Sep 1618; m. there, first, 15 Nov 1585, Jane Shepheard, who d. before 1603. (College of Arms states that she was bur. 1600). William m/2, Cam, Gloucester County, on 4 Dec 1603, Jane Woodward, who was buried in Wotton-under-Edge, 2 Feb 1614.

   Children by Jane Shepheard:

   i. Ann Williams, bapt. 9 Dec 1600, St. Mary the Virgin; m. John Hall. Children: (1) Susannah Hall, (2) John Hall, (3) Samuel Hall and (4) Daniel Hall.

   Children by Jane Woodward:

3. ii. Samuel Williams, b. c1604.
   iii. Elizabeth Williams, b. c1605; went to New England; apparently unmarried.
4. iv. Richard Williams, bapt. 28 Jan 1607.
   v. Jane Williams, bapt. 19 Mar 1609, St. Mary the Virgin; unmarried before 1655.
   (Names in her will: "brother Samuel Williams"; "brother Richard Williams and my sister Elizabeth Williams that are in New England"; "Benjamin Williams and Nathaniel Williams, two sons of my brother Samuel Williams"; John Hall, the younger, my sister's eldest son; and "to Samuel, Daniel and Susannah Hall, the other three children of my brother-in-law, John Hall.")

3. Samuel Williams, b. c1604; d. about 1669; a fuller in 1646 (cloth worker or blacksmith); m/1, 29 Jul 1630, Wotton-under-Edge, Mary Holden; bur. there 16 Nov 1631; m/2, 24 Oct 1637, Eastington, widow Alice Knight.

   Children by Mary Holden:

   i. Benjamin Williams, bapt. 16 Nov 1631, St. Mary the Virgin; d.s.p. by 1698 (left will).
   ii. Nathaniel Williams

   Children by Alice Knight:

   iii. Samuel Williams, b. 1638; died young.
   iv. Hannah Williams, bapt. 1640; d. 1645
   v. Nathaniel Williams, bapt. 1645.

4. Richard Williams, of Taunton, MA; was bapt. in the Parish Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Wotton-under-Edge, County Gloucester, England, 28 Jan 1607; d. Taunton, Bristol County, MA, between 22 Dec 1688 and 15 Sep 1693, probably 1693. He married in Witcombe Magna, Co. Gloucester, 11 Feb 1632, Frances Deighton, bapt. in St. Nicholas Church, City of Gloucester, 1 Mar 1611; d. Taunton, between 20 Oct 1703 and 7 Mar 1705-06; dau. of John Deighton, Surgeon of Gloucester, and his wife, Jane Bassett.

   Richard Williams evidently came to New England about 1636 or 1637. He was a tanner. His children were:

   i. John Williams, bapt. 27 Mar 1634; died young; born Gloucester, England.
   ii. Elizabeth Williams, bapt. 7 Feb 1635-36; died young, born Gloucester, England.
   iii. Samuel Williams, b. c1639; m. Jane Gilbert.
   iv. Nathaniel Williams, bapt. 7 Feb 1641; m. 17 Nov 1668, Taunton, MA, Elizabeth Rogers.
   v. Joseph Williams, b. c1643; m. 28 Nov 1667, Taunton, MA, Elizabeth Watson.
   vi. Thomas Williams, b. c1645; m. Mary ___.
   vii. Elizabeth Williams, b. c1647; m. John Bird of Dorchester, MA.
   viii. Hannah Williams, b. c1650; m. John Parmenter.
   ix. Benjamin Williams, b. c1652; m. 12 Mar 1689-90 (or 18 Mar 1690), Rebecca Macy, who m/2, as his third wife, Capt. James Leonard of Taunton, MA.

APPENDIX 5

RICHARD AND FRANCES (DEIGHTON) WILLIAMS

OF TAUNTON, MASSACHUSETTS

The following excerpts from The New England Historical and Genealogical Register are included in this genealogy for the purpose of correcting interpretations made by Henry R. Stiles in The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, Vol. II, pages 823-824. Since most genealogists have relied on Stiles' data on Matthew Williams, to tie in to the family of Richard Williams of Taunton, Massachusetts, the will of Benjamin Williams, and that of Jane Williams, as properly interpreted by the Register, eliminates the alleged proof by Stiles that Matthew Williams was a son of Richard Williams of Taunton.

Volume XXXVII (for the year 1883), page 236.

Benjamin Williams, of Stoake, near Guldeford, co. Surrey, schoolmaster, 2 July, 1695, proved 22 September, 1698, by Nathaniel Williams, his brother and executor. To cousin Susanna Hall, John, Samuel and Daniel Hall, now or late of Whetenhurst in co. Gloucester, twenty shillings apiece, within six months after decease of the testator. To cousins, Anna Cliffold (Clifford?), of Bisley, and her two brothers, Richard and Nathaniel Tindall of Nibley, and to my cousin Joseph Tindall, of Nibley, sometime of Trotton Hinton, ministers, ten shillings apiece, within six months, &c. To my cousins Samuel, Thomas and Benjamin Williams, of New England, and to my cousin Elizabeth Bird, of Dorchester in New England, and to the eldest child of my cousin Williams, of New England, deceased, in case there (are) any of them living, and also to the eldest child of my cousin Joseph Williams, deceased, in case he have left any living and who shall be living at the time of my decease, to every and each of the said last mentioned persons the sum of twenty shillings, within one year, &c. To the poor of the parish of Eastington fifty shillings, and to the poor of the parish of Whetenhurst fifty shillings, any poor people of my father's kindred principally recommended. To my brother in law Nathaniel Williams, of Brandley, in co. Worcester, and his heirs forever, all those my freehold, tenements, lands tenements and hereditaments, &c., in Eastington and Frampton, and elsewhere In Gloucestershire, and all the residue; he to be executor.

Note that the name Nathaniel is by my mistake omitted, and also the eldest child of my cousin Hannah Parmater is to be comprehended. B.W. Lort, 208

(The children of Richard Williams, one of the first settlers of Taunton, N.E., were 1. John, 2. Samuel, 3. Joseph, 4. Nathaniel, 5. Thomas, 6. Benjamin, 7. Elizabeth, wife of John Bird, 8. Hannah, wile of John Parmenter. See Reg. V.414. All these children, except John, who may have died young, are named in the above will.)

Emery, in his "Ministry of Taunton", i. 43-5, quotes "a manuscript of considerable antiquity," but evidently not written before 1718, which states that "Richard Williams was descended from a family of that name in Glamorganshire, in Wales, and found a wife in Gloucestershire, England." The same manuscript states that his wife was Frances Dighton, sister of Katharine, second wife of Gov. Thomas Dudley. Baylies, in his "Historical Memoir of New Plymouth," part I, page 284, says there was a tradition that Williams was a relative of Oliver Cromwell. He also prints (i. 272) a letter from the Rev. Roger Williams, in which reference is made to "my brother". Baylies thinks this may be Richard Williams, of Taunton. John Bird, the husband of Elizabeth Williams, was a son of Thomas Bird of Dorchester. (See Bird Genealogy, Reg. XXV. 21-30--Ed.)

Volume XXXVII (for the year 1883), pages 376-377

Jane Williams, of Whetenhurst, Co. Gloucester, spinster, 31 May 1650, proved 30 June 1655. To brother Samuel Williams my Scottish print bible. To my brother, Richard Williams and my sister Elizabeth Williams that are in New England, each of them twenty shillings apiece. To Benjamin Williams and Nathaniel Williams, the two sons of my brother Samuel Williams, ten pounds apiece when they reach the age of twenty-one years. To John Hall, the younger, my sister's eldest son, ten pounds and a standing bedstead that is in his father's parlour chamber, my brother-In-law John Hall's. To Samuel, Daniel and Susanna Hall, the other three children of my brother-in-law, John Hall, twenty pounds apiece at 21. Brother-in-law John Hall to be executor. Aylett, 292.

[It is possible that the Richard Williams, named above, as In New England, was Richard Williams of Taunton (ante, page 238); but it is not probable. Six other persons by this name are recorded by Savage. — Ed.)

Volume XLV (for the year 1891). pages 302-303

Williams (ante, Vol.37, pages 236, 376):
[At the above references, Mr. Waters, in his Gleanings, gives abstracts of the wills of Jane Williams of Whetenhurst, Glouc., a sister of Richard Williams of Taunton, N.E., and that of Benjamin Williams of Stoke, near Guildford Surrey, a nephew of Richard and Jane. Upon the publication of these abstracts Ex-Gov. Joseph Hartwell Williams of Augusta, Me., a descendant in the 7th generation from Richard Williams of Taunton, undertook to prosecute the investigation by correspondence, and obtained very gratifying results, which he gives in an article contributed by him to the Maine Historical and Genealogical Recorder for January, 1889 (issued December, 1890), pages 255-262. We make the following extracts:

"In the Consistory Court of the Bishop of Gloucester was found the will of Samuel Williams, dated Sept 26, 1668, proved in 1669. He was apparently a clergyman, for he gave to his son Benjamin his 'Book of Marters' and 'Perkins Works', and to his son Nathaniel his 'Written Sermons'. He also mentions his 'brother', James Adams (his wife's brother), his brother Richard Williams and his sister Elizabeth Williams, the Adamses again, and his cousins (nephews and nieces) the four Hall children.

"Next was discovered the will of William Williams of Synwell
, a hamlet in Wotton-under-Edge. It was dated Sept. 26, 1618, and proved in the same year. It names sons Samuel and Richard, daughters Ann or Anna, Elizabeth and Jane. These are the same names as in the other wills, except that it is here found that the name of Mrs. Hall was Ann. The witnesses were William Martin, Robert Trotman and Francis Wright, the two former of whom are named as overseers. These are well-known names of families of high standing. The executor was Richard Tyndall (or Tyndale) of North Nibley, a relative of William, the translator of the Bible, who suffered martyrdom in Flanders.

"An examination of the register of the parish of St. Mary the VirgIn in Wotton-under-Edge In GloucestershIre, brought to light the baptisms of the following children of William Williams: 'An', daughter, Dec. 2, 1599; Richard, son, Jan.28, 1606; Jane, daughter, March 19, 1608.

"There is also the record of the burial of William Williams, Sept 29, 1618, and of Elizabeth Williams, Nov.19, 1630. It was at first supposed that this Elizabeth might have been the mother of Richard; but as no wife is mentioned in the will of William, this is scarcely probable. Susanna Williams was buried Jan.11, 1610, and she may have been wife of William.

"The records show that Samuel Williams married Alice Knight, a widow, in 1637; that their son Samuel was baptized in 1638, their daughter Hannah in 1640 (died 1645), and their son Nathaniel in 1645; that the mother died in 1661, and the father in 1669. Samuel, Jr., died young, and the record of Benjamin's baptism has not been found."

An early genealogical manuscript, preserved In the Williams family, states that the wife Of Richard Williams was "Frances Dighton, sister to Catharine Dighton, who was married to Governor Thomas Dudley. Gov. Williams finds corroboration of this statement. He finds a record that,

"February 11, 1632, Richard Williams was married to Frances Deighton of Gloucester in the Parish of Witcombe Magna." (Richard and Frances Williams had two children born to them while living in Gloucester: John, bp. March 27, 1634, and Elizabeth, bp. Feb. 7, 1635-36. Both died young.)

He finds also the will of John Deighton, father of the above Frances, dated Jan.31, 1639, proved May 21.1640, which mentions his eldest son John, his eldest daughter Jane, his daughter Frances Williams, his daughter Katherine Haighburne, and his daughter Damaris, who was made residuary legatee." The following inscription found In St. Nicholas Church, Gloucester, we quote from the same article:

"Here lies interred the bodies of John Deighton of this city, gent., and Jane, his wife, daughter of Edward Bassett of Uley, by whom he had Issue three sons and four daughters. He spent all his time in the study of chirurgery, and attained to great knowledge therein. He died 16 May 16[40] and she 23 April, 1631."

The registers of the same church show the christenings of his daughters, Frances, baptized March 1, 1611, and Katharine, baptized Jan.16, 1614.

Katharine Deighton, baptized Jan. 16, 1614-5, married Samuel Hagburne or Haighburne. They came to New England and settled in Roxbury, where the husband died Jan. 24, 1643. An abstract of his will is printed in the Register, vol. 2, pages 261-262. She married 2d, Gov. Thomas Dudley, April 14, 1644, who died July 31, 1653. She married 3rd, Nov. 8, 1653, Rev. John Allin of Dedham, who died Aug. 26, 1671. She died three days after, August 29. She had children by all her husbands. Gov. Joseph Dudley was one of her sons.

Volume LI (for the year 1897), page 508.

The Genealogy of the Cromwell-Williams family was compiled by Mr. Phillips in 1894 for the late Hon. Joseph Hartwell Williams, Ex-Governor of Maine, who had been engaged many years in researches into the history of the family. He had a very few copies of the pedigree printed as gifts to his immediate relatives. We understand that an important clue in tracing the ancestry of Richard Williams, of Taunton, Mass., was found in the wills of his brother, Benjamin Williams, of Stoake in Surrey, and his sister, Jane Williams, of Wheatenhurst In Gloucester, which Mr. Waters found and printed in his Gleanings in the Register for July and October, 1883, vol. 37, pages 236 and 376.

APPENDIX 6

ENGLISH ANCESTRY OF RICHARD WILLIAMS AND HIS WIFE, FRANCES (DEIGHTON) WILLIAMS

(Note: Excerpts from Vol. IX, The American Genealogist (1932-1933), by Donald Lines Jacobus.)

Pages 136-144

I. ENGLISH ANCESTRY OF RICHARD WILLIAMS

From time to time there have appeared various articles pertaining to the English ancestry of Richard Williams and his wife, Frances Deighton, early settlers of Taunton, Bristol County, Mass. There seemed to be so much truth interwoven with so much fancy in these accounts, that at the request of Roy Hullihen Williams, of Richmond, Va., a lineal descendant of the said Richard Williams, the compiler has endeavored to obtain the absolute proof of the Williams and Deightom descent. She not only employed the College of Arms on this matter, and Richard Holworthy, Esq., of London, but also personally went to Gloucestershire on the search.

Several times a lineage has been printed purporting to prove that Richard Williams, grandfather of our Richard, was son of a Richard Williams (1487-1559), of Monmouthshire; grandson of a Richard Williams, who was Steward of Wimbledon Manor in Surrey; great-grandson of a Thomas Williams of Glamorgan, who in turn was a son of Morgan Williams of Glamorgan. But the College of Arms states that this lineage cannot be correct as Thomas, the son of Morgan Williams, adopted the surname of Lloyd.

The College of Arms in their report adds further:

> It seems that little reliance can be placed on the pedigree printed in the 'New England Register', vol. 51, pp. 210-2, as the researches then carried out were apparently made with the object of supporting the preconceived idea that a connection existed with the family of Cromwell alias Williams.

Besides their own invaluable records and rolls, the College of Arms searched all available wills and subsidy rolls, but were unable to run the line any further back than a Richard Williams of Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire, grandfather of Richard Williams, the Emigrant from England.

Mr. Holworthy in his researches reached the same conclusions as the College of Arms. Among other sources, he examined the Chancery Proceedings, Series II; Star Chamber Proceedings, 1558-1603; Star Chamber Proceedings, James I; Exchequer Depositions; Exchequer Special Commissions; Uncalendared Chancery Proceedings; Recovery Rolls; Chancery Proceedings, Elizabeth, calendared and uncalendared; Queen's Remembrancer of Exchequer; Memoranda Rolls, Elizabeth; Court of Requests, Elizabeth; and Enrolled Decrees, Chancery.

Mr. Holworthy's supposition is that the first Williams of Wotton-under-Edge, came from elsewhere, possibly from Wales, as at that period a large number of people migrated from Wales to the border English counties. Only one possible source was omitted in this search, that of the Ecclesiastical Records at Gloucester, as the expense of such a search would be great.

Apparently, no real foundation has yet been found for the tradition and supposition that the English ancestry of Richard Williams was connected with the Cromwells. Furthermore, A. T. Butler, Esq., Portcullis of the College of Arms, in his report, stated that this Williams Family of Wotton-under-Edge was not entitled to Arms.

Beginning then with the actually known and proven facts, we have:

John Williams of Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire, who names son William in his will of 1578, and said William in his will of 1618 names his son Richard. (vide post)

The pedigree as supplied by the College of Arms appears on page 138. (See Appendix 4 in this book)

The Parish Registers of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Wotton-under-Edge, co. Gloucester, begin in 1571. They were examined to 1640 and the following extracts furnished by the Rector of that church:

WOTTON-UNDER-EDGE

Wotton-under-Edge, situated under an edge of the Cotswolds in co. Gloucester, some twenty miles south of the cathedral city of Gloucester, is a charming little town, perched on the side of a hill, surrounded by the lovely green of the English countryside.

Once known as "Wooltoun under Ridge," and then a rich center of the cloth-making industry, the many Tudor mansions, quaint buildings, and old Alms Houses, speak eloquently of the town's past importance. Most of the houses in the old days contained looms, but to-day even those cloth mills that supplanted the looms, have been turned to other uses.

On the site of a former town burned centuries ago, Wotton-under-Edge is all ups and downs, and indeed a part of the main thoroughfare terminates most abruptly, that portion of the street being known as The Steep. A few minutes walk from The Steep, is that lovely old shrine of Thirteen and Fourteenth Century Architecture, the Parish Church of S. Mary Le Virgin.

Now called St. Mary the Virgin, or more familiarly, just St. Mary's, an unusually large edifice in comparison with the present town, and in its size alone, firmly attesting to the former glories of Wotton-under-Edge, the old church consists of a chancel, nave of six bays with a north and south aisles, south porch of two stories, north chapel and western tower of four stages, all mainly of the Decorated Period.

Dating from 1320, the present church was built on the foundation of an earlier church, and of gray time-weathered stone, contains examples of the Early English and of the Perpendicular Periods.

From the grounds surrounding the church one can look into the valley below, and a small hamlet was pointed out by this Rector as being Synwell. The name of Synwell was given to a small section of the Parish and it was here that the Williams Family lived and where our Richard Williams was born.

Unfortunately the interior of St. Mary's was restored in Georgian times and is not of such great interest to the descendants of Richard Williams for that reason. But the beautiful carved font of gray stone which has served in the christening of babies for over four hundred years remains. Doubtless our Richard was baptised therein, for the Parish Registers contain the date of that event, 28 Jan. 1607.

The floor of the church was paved with red tile about seventy years ago, probably at about the same time, that the floor of St. Nicholas, in Gloucester, also suffered this indignity. Luckily, a copy of the inscriptions on the original floor tombs was made at the time, as was a copy of the mural tablets, and tombs in the church, and of the gravestones in the churchyard. This copy is now (1929) in the possession of Colonel J. D. Buckton of North Nibley, Wotton-under-Edge, who kindly searched it but found no Williams inscriptions.

Many monuments decorate the interior of the church, and among them are some ancient brasses, one to Richard De Wotton, Rector circa 1320, and one to the Berkeleys. The organ, originally presented in 1726 to St. Martin-in-the-Fields, Westminster, London, by George I, represents the generosity of a former vicar.

Mounting the steep and extraordinarily narrow circular staircase of stone, apparently built right in the church walls, the Rector, A. J. Hodson, led the way to a sort of little loft, where the Parish Registers are kept. And here, in an ancient, time-yellowed book, the compiler saw the entry of the baptism of Richard Williams.

John Williams of Wotton-under-Edge, co. Gloucester, born place unknown, about 1535, was buried in the churchyard of St. Mary the virgin, 27 Aug. 1578. His wife, whom he named the executrix of his will in 1578 was Theobalde _____ , whether she was the mother of his children, or not, is unknown. Theobalde may have been that Tybboll Williams whose burial is recorded in the Registers of St. Mary the Virgin, 9 Jan. 1608.

Abstract of the will of John Willyams of Wotton under Edge in Countie of Gloucester, dated 17 Apryll 1578:

> My Soule to God &c and my bodie to be buried in the Churche Yarde of Wotton.
> I give to the poore people inhabytinge and dwellinge in the parish of Wotton 4 bushells of malt.
> I give to William Willyams my Sonne £5 to be paid him at the Feast of Saynte Michell the Archangell 1579.
> I give to John Willyams my Sonne £5 in Year 1581.
> I give to Hughe Willyams my Sonne £5 at age of 24 Years.
> I give to Frannces Willyams my daughter £5 at day of her marriage or at age of 20 Years.
> I give to Richard Burnnam son of Anthony Burnnam a Yew & a lambe.
> To Johane Willyams the daughter of Edmond Wyllyams, Yew & lamb.
> I give all the rest of my Goods to Theobalde my Wife & maker her Sole Executrix.
> Overseers: William Maynard, Frances Plomer, Nicholas Wynde & give to each of them for their paines 12^{d}. Witnesses: Augustyne Pyllersworthe, Francis Plomer, William Maynde, Nicholas Wynde, John Touche and others. Proved 25 June 1579, at Gloucester.

Children:

i. William Williams, b. about 1555; m. Jane Shepheard and Jane Woodward.
v. John Williams, b. about 1557.
vi. Hugh Williams, b. about 1560, under 24 in 1578.
vii. Frances Williams, b. about 1562, under 20 in 1578. (A Frances Williams was bur. 11 Mar 1581, Wotton.)

William Williams (John), of Synwell, Wotton-under-Edge, co. Gloucester, born place unknown, about 1555, buried in Wotton-under-Edge, 29 Sept. 1618. He married there, first, 15 Nov. 1585, Jane Shepheard, who died before 1603 (College of Arms states that she was buried in 1600); he married secondly, in Cam, co. Gloucester, 4 Dec. 1603, Jane Woodward, who was buried in Wotton-under-Edge, 2 Feb. 1615.

From Men and Armour of Gloucester 1608, it may be noted that in that year, there were but two of the name of Williams living in the hamlet of Synwell, and they are listed directly one under the other, viz.:

William Williams, fuller,3. p [d]
Mathewe Williams fuller 1. ca. ''[d]

Hence, William Williams in 1608 was aged between fifty and sixty years and of a tall stature. The woolen industry was at the time the principal occupation of the parish, so it is easily seen why both these men were fullers.

Page 267 notes: d - The abbreviations '3.p.," mean "betwene fyfty and three score," and "tallest stature fitt to make a phykeman." "1 ca." means "about Twenty", and "lower stature fitt to serve with a caltver."

Abstract of the Will of William Williams of Synwell in the parish of Wootton under Edge County Gloucester Yeoman dated 26 day of September 1618:

My Soul to God &c

Item All my implements of household stuff I give to Samuel Williams, Richard Williams, Anne Williams & Jane Williams (my foure children) to be divided into five equal portions in discretion of my Executor & overseers my sd Sonne Samuel Williams to make choyse for himself first in divided thereof & the rest unto sd Richard Williams, Anne Williams, Elizabeth Williams & Jane Williams my children equally & to be employed for their education until they attain their several ages of 15 Years & after they attain that age to the best proper benefit of them if either die under the age of 21 Years their share to remain to the other children surviving.

And whereas Robert Tratman & William Tratman Junr by obligation dated 13 March 1617 I am Jointly bound unto Anne Williams my sd daughter in sum of four score pounds with the condition of payment of £44 upon 6 March next ensuing the date hereof.

And whereas Richard Gillam of Huntingford & Thomas Roach by their obligation dated 3 April last stand bound unto Elizabeth Williams my sd daughter in three score pounds for payment of £33 on 23 May next.

And whereas William Beale by his obligation bearing date 3 April last stands bound to Elizabeth Williams my daughter for £20 & £11 of which is to be made on the Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin next

I do appoint that these several sums & obligations shall be deemed to be part of their several lagacies

I appoint Richard Tindall of North Nibley Co. aforesaid Yeoman to be Sole Executor & I nominate William Marken & Robert Tratman to be my overseers & I do give unto each of them for their paines 10s.

The marke of

SEARCH FOR MATTHEW WILLIAMS' BIRTH IN WALES

Neil D. Thompson, Ph.D., LL.B., C.G., was asked to check the records of Glamorgan, Wales, for a Matthew Williams who might fit the time frame of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT. Many genealogies said he had origins in Glamorgan, Wales. The following report from Dr. Thompson dated 20 January 1998, did not reveal any item of interest, but even negative information is helpful in genealogical research.

"The registers of Llantrithyd, co. Glamorgan, have been published and this explains why this material is on the IGI (International Genealogical Index). They do make an earlier start than many other registers in the region but with the christenings starting later than marriages and burials we can never be sure we have everything. Page references are to this published version; the compiler was one of the best antiquaries of the period and I think we can assume the entries accurate.

p. 62	15 Sep 1594	William Matho married Margaret Jevan
p. 1	6 Jan 1597/8	Marie dau. of William Mathew baptized
p. 4	26 Oct 1611	MATHEW son of William Matho baptized
p. 5	1 Jan 1616/7	Mary dau. of William Matho baptized
p. 6	22 Apr 1620	Rice son of William Matho baptized
p. 6	6 Apr 1623	Jenkin son of William Matho baptized
p. 39	23 May 1632	Margaret Hullin wife of William Matho buried
p. 8	8 Sep 1636	Lancelot base son of William Mathew begotten on Anne Matthew baptised [mother probably dau. of John Matthew, taylor, bapt. Feb. 1609/10 - p. 4]
p. 62	24 Dec 1654	William Mathew buried

Although the names appear in different forms, we are talking about the same family. Variations would depend on the mood of the clerk or minister that day. For example, Margaret Hullin would be the same person as Margaret Jevan, probably daughter of Jevan Hullin. The register does not show any marriage or burial for the son William, so I thought it well to examine all wills from the Consistory Court of Llandaff made by residents of Llantrithyd. The Library has abstracts of all these wills indexed by parish, by surname and by patronymic - this is the period when surnames were just beginning to be established among the Welsh.

I should mention that Llandaff is an exception to the usual rule that during the 1650s all wills from England and Wales were proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury. I did check the latter court for a will or administration of William Matho /Mathew who died in 1654 but found none.

In the Consistory Court of Llandaff, I found only one will from Llanthrithyd that even mentioned, or may have mentioned, one of the members of this family. The will of Philemon Prichard of Llantrithyd, dated 1 November 1651 and proved 10 December 1651 [1651/2, No. 67], names as executrix and sole legatee his mother Elizabeth Prichard. Among the witnesses was MATTHEW WILLIAM.

While we do not know that this was the son of William Mathew/Matho baptized in 1611, I strongly suspect that it was, letting him out as the emigrant to New England.

As you asked, I am returning the other materials that you sent. They seem to repeat one another without adding any proof to the suggestions of connection to Oliver Cromwell's Williams ancestry and in my mind do not help in locating the parentage of Matthew Williams, your ancestor.

APPENDIX 8

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND

The genealogy, Lyon Memorial – Families of Connecticut and New Jersey, page 129, has this brief biography of Matthew Williams - "Matthew Williams was born in Glamorganshire, Wales, 1606; came to Massachusetts Colony 1635 from Watertown to Wethersfield, Conn. as one of its founders (1636-7); he died before 1678, leaving a widow, Susanna Williams of Wethersfield." The genealogy, Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant by Tenney Smith, pages 289-290, adds: "Matthew Williams sailed from the port of Glasgow, Scotland, in 1635. He spent two years in Watertown, Mass." Tenney also says that Matthew moved to Wethersfield in 1637, and married in 1644, as his second wife, Susannah Cole. She was unmarried, and born in England.

We had previously asked Neil D. Thompson, Ph.D., LL.B., C.G., of Salt Lake City, Utah, to check out the Glamorgan place of origin and his report, found in Appendix 7, could find no evidence that Matthew was from Glamorgan, Wales.

We then asked Dr. Thompson to check out the Glasgow embarkation data, hoping that further clues as to Matthew's origins might ensue from this investigation. Excerpts from Dr. Thompson's report of 20 August 1998 are reflected below:

> "Tenney Smith discusses Matthew Williams on pages 289 and 290 of his book and does say that Matthew Williams came from Glasgow to Watertown, Massachusetts in 1635. Some of what he said, including the discredited Cromwell connection, he cited from the Lyon Memorial, first published in 1907—I enclose 2:135-36 so you can see how much he took. Where he arrived at Glasgow as the port of embarkation I cannot tell. Neither part of the alleged journey seems to be supported by any evidence whatever.
>
> In his history of Wethersfield Stiles (2:824) says of Matthew Williams, as you probably know, that he 'seems to have been at Watertown', but, as my grandmother used to say, 'seems' butters no parsnips. Watertown town records, Massachusetts Bay Colony governmental and court records, Bond's History of Watertown, and anything else I could think of were all examined and revealed early settlement of an Abraham Williams and a William Williams, but no Matthew Williams. Some of the early settlers of Wethersfield are known to have come from Watertown but Matthew Williams is not among their number. There is nothing to document either that he came in 1635 or that any ships from Glasgow came to New England in 1635.
>
> There are no published passenger lists of Glasgow immigrants at this period, and one of the specialists here informs me that no such lists are found among Scottish manuscript sources for this period, though some exist for much later emigrants. I checked literally everything the Library has on early passengers to New England but found nothing to support the Glasgow theory or even an indication of its original source as an erroneous idea.
>
> It is in any event faintly absurd that a Welshman or West Countryman would travel all the way to Glasgow to board a ship to America when there are perfectly good ships sailing from much nearer ports."

APPENDIX 9

RESEARCH BY NEIL D. THOMPSON, Ph.D., LL.B., C.G.

of Salt Lake City, Utah

(Note: Dr. Thompson was commissioned by Lyle Keith Williams, author of three Williams genealogies, to perform certain research in connection with Matthew Williams (1) of Wethersfield, Connecticut. The task covered a number of topies over a span of some twelve years. Excerpts follow:

July 12, 1989

(Exeerpt from a letter on several other subjeets.) Dear Lyle: One thing is elear— Matthew Williams was not the son of Richard Williams, who married Frances Deighton—they were of the same age. There may have been a relationship. A Williams in Wales is almost as hard to find as one of my Jones families, but we have an approximate age and some elues. You noted that Savage was not very eomplimentary about Matthew Williams.

December 5, 1990

The rest of the Williams works was done last week but only yesterday did I have time to write it up. Beeause of the delay, do not worry that I took more than the four hours paid for. Taking your account in Batchelor-Williams as a base, I wanted to do two things: (1) analyze what is actually known about Matthew Williams in terms of documents and what has been simply reeopied over and over from one seeondary source to another, and (2) try to identify his parents, and, if not that, at least look at the pedigrees that have been given to see what, if any, merit there is in them.

On the life and career of Matthew Williams, I was not altogether surprised to find that a good deal of what has appeared in print, ineluding material taken by you from other secondary sources, has no foundation in the doeuments. There is a good and well-doeumented aeeount of the family of Richard Williams of Taunton in The American Genealogist, vols. 9 and 10, which proves that this immigrant was in no way conneeted with or descended from Morgan Williams who married the sister of Cromwell. The author of the 19th eentury Register article was deeeived by some English researcher who was either a fraud or an incompetent. Also, sinee both Riehard Williams and his widow left wills, it is easy enough to see that Matthew Williams of Wethersfield could not have been his son, and the English records make elear that Matthew could not have been his brother either.

One of your correspondents quite properly pointed to Llyfr Baglan and George T. Clark, Limbus patrum Morganiae et Glamorganiae (2 vols., London, 1886) as good sources for 16th century (and as to Clark) 17th century Glamorganshire families. Clark, 1:86-87, has an account of the family of Williams of Aberpwrgwm of the parish of Cadoxton-juxta-Neath. The Lyon genealogy and others who have eopied from it say that Matthew Williams' father was a Richard Williams of this Welsh manor. Unfortunately, there was no Riehard Williams who eould have been Matthew's father in this pedigree, nor was the family in any way related to Morgan Williams, the ancestor of Cromwell. The founder of the family was Jenkin ap William of Aberpwrgwm, second son of William ap Jenkin of Blaen Baglan, co. Glamorgan by his wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Sir George Mathew.

The best summary of the Williams-Cromwell pedigree is in the Victoria County History, Huntingdonshire, 2:67-72. There was indeed a Henry Cromwell, son of Sir Francis Cromwell (d. 1598), but he died in December 1601 without issue. Neither these men nor any other known deseendants of Morgan and Catherine (Cromwell) Williams ever resumed the name of Williams. They all retained the surname of Cromwell. There is just no way that Henry Cromwell, who died without issue in 1604, or any other member of the family, eould be your Matthew Williams. Matthew's profession of brick-maker and the absence of the title of respect "Mr." before his name at any time in Connecticut is against any claim of gentry descent.

I examined very carefully the early Watertown records but found no evidence that Matthew Williams had ever lived there or that any family of Conant/Condit was there who could have produced his alleged first wife Elizabeth. It is my opinion that the first wife is fictitious and that none of the persons identified as ehildren of Matthew Williams by the first wife were such, in particular, Thomas Williams with whom you deal in your Chapter 42. They eertainly existed but there is not one serap of evidence, apart from a easual statement in Vol. I of the The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut, that they were in any way related to Matthew or to his ehildren.

The enclosed edition of the records of the Partieular Court of Connectieut, 1639-1663 (Hartford, 1928) is useful beeause it eontains the earliest and the last record we have of Matthew Williams and beeause it perhaps explains Savage's remark that nothing good was known of the man. As of 10 July 1645 he was still unmarried; he and his woman, Susan Cole, were to be whipped for fornication. Evidently they were married later, although there is no specifie reeord of the date of the marriage. The oldest son, Amos, was born 14 Mareh 1645/6 [Wethersfield LR 1:18, 38] and is reeorded at 1:18 as son of Matthew Williams and his wife Susanna. The son Matthew is also reeorded at LR 1:18 and at 1:38 there are recorded, besides Amos, three sons: Matthew, bor. 22 October 1647; Matthew, born 8 May 1651; and Samuel, born 4 January 1653/4. No daughter Ruth was recorded, and the placement here of a Ruth Williams who married Caleb Pierson is not approved by the The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut. In fact, it is pure speculation.

The last record we have of him is dated 13 November 1654 when he and John Lyley were accused of "uncleanness" with a black servant of "Mr. Chester", probably the female "Neger maid" who was mentioned in the inventory of Leonard Chester who died in 1648 (History of Wethersfield 1:700). Because the expression might have covered sexual misconduct with a male as well as a female, I thought it was worthwhile to see whether the slave could be identified—apparently the Chester family, very well off, had but one. He seems to have deserted his family after that and probably never returned. There is no indication that he owned any land in Wethersfield. The reason I think that he deserted his family, rather than that he died, was the otherwise odd events of 1662/3 and 1664 in the Hartford Probate Court. The records of this court are kept in an odd way. In each volume there are a series of recorded instruments (wills, inventories, etc.), and a series of court minutes. One is started from the front to back, and for the other the record book was turned upside down and run back to front. When they met, a new book was started. Which one ran front to back was not always the same. Each set of records had its own page number, so that in each volume there will be two pages 50, two pages 100, etc. In this case we are dealing with the court minutes in Volume 1. On 11 March 1662/3 the court directed Samuel Boreman to deliver to Amos Williams books given him by his mother; on 13 October 1664 Samuel Boreman and two others were directed to dispose of the estate of "Matthew Williams, his wife" [which means "the wife of Matthew Williams"] to pay estate debts. Susanna (Cole) Williams was dead by 13 October 1664 and almost certainly by 11 March 1662/3 when her creditors seem to have claimed the Bible and paper book, with everything else, that the court saw fit to allow her eldest son.

It has been claimed in print that Susannah Williams petitioned the court in 1680 to allow her to distribute her estate among her sons. The only trouble with this is that no such petition or proceeding can be found where it ought to be, in the Probate Court books which are here and which I have read for the entire year. I wish we had the Superior Court records here just to be sure.* It is just possible that in fact there was a late division of some property belonging to Matthew Williams to his sons in 1680 but not on the petition of a woman who must have been dead for more than seventeen years! On the surface, this would have little bearing on the problem of the parentage of Matthew Williams, but one point to be kept in mind is the lack of any real evidence as to his age. Still unmarried in 1645, his adventures in court, including the misconduct with the Chesters' black servant in 1654, are those of a man much younger than the assigned date of 1605 for his birth. If, as I believe, Elizabeth Condit/Conant was a myth, and Susanna Colege his only wife, he could well have been fifteen years younger.

At this stage I simply do not see where we could go to find his parents in England or Wales. We can be sure that all the published accounts are absolutely without foundation and a search through all the possible Matthew Williamses in England prior to 1640 or so would be an exercise of a lifetime unless we got very lucky indeed. So, I do not recommend further work at this time unless better clues to his origin and approximately date of birth turn up. "

* Note by Lyle K. Williams:

In the above report of December 5, Dr. Thompson states in his penultimate paragraph, that he was unable to check the Superior Court records as they were not available in the LDS genealogical Library, Salt Lake City. Accordingly, the author asked Mr. Warren D. Buchanan, a genealogist of Watertown, Connecticut, to check these records in Connecticut. His reply follows:

Mr. Williams:

"I did go thru' the Particular Court Records and things are just as Mr. Thompson put them. Mathew was a bad boy and it does appear on the surface that he married but once, died as given and had pract. no Est. of any value.

There was no Superior Court for Hartford Co. till about 1711. Prior, it was either the General Court for the entire colony or the Court of Assistance 1665-1711. I got out the Court of Assistance 1665-1711 as transcribed by N. B. Lacy of Yale and found nothing ca. 1680 re. any Susannah/Mathew Williams estate matter.

I also got out Vol. 53 Early General Courts 1669-1686, 1696-1701, and I was not able to read the microfilm rec....and I doubt if I could have 20 years ago either. Very bad.

I also checked the early Probate Records. Nothing ca. 1680.

I really can't do much more on this. It might have helped had I the exact source for the supposed 1680 appeal for an Est. Distrib., but regardless, I doubt such exists!

Sorry I could not do more."

(s) Warren D. Buchanan

December 15, 1990 (Dr. Thompson continues)

"It seems evident that the Matthew Williams men named in the Complete Book of Immigrants are not your ancestor at all. And, of course, not only was he not the son of Richard Williams of co. Gloucester, but the Richard Williams who died at Taunton was not related to the Williams-Cromwell family, as we now know the actual parents and grandparents of this Richard Williams. Your ancestor, a bricklayer by trade, might have gone to Barbados, but I find no relevant references in such Barbados records as we have here (which do not, unfortunately, include deeds).

Unless an unmistakable first marriage for him turns up in England, or a probate record in England, which mentions him, I doubt he will ever be found. The immigrants most likely to be traced are those who married and had one or more children whom they brought with them; I found one client's Wood ancestry in England because the immigrant had the good sense to name a son Obadiah, an uncommon name, and this son's age as recorded here matched the baptismal date of the English Obadiah, with right names for parents and known siblings.

One thing which does stick in my mind is a feeling, not really more than that, that he was a younger man than any secondary sources state. I think he was made to be born earlier so as to allow for a first marriage. In the absence of any vital or court or church record giving his age at any time, I would postulate a birth about 1620. I'll be keeping watch for him in the new Great Migration Project commenced by the New England Historic Genealogical Society, which will try to trace all immigrants to New England prior to 1643, might turn him up in one of their extensive sweeps of records over the next twenty years or so.

I am sorry that I could not do better for you, but at least there is now a more solid foundation from which to work.

The Gloucestershire Record Office has finally responded to our request for a re-examination of the register of the parish of Wotton-under-Edge to see whether anything more is revealed concerning the family of a Matthew Williams who married there, 11 August 1608, Elinor Blisse and who had two children baptized there: one unnamed, 22 April 1610, and a son Matthew 7 January 1611/2. The register was examined to the end of 1645 and absolutely nothing was found regarding any member of this family thereafter. The record searcher noted that no entries were made in the register for the year 1626.

With these negative results in mind, I examined the probate records of the Consistory Court of Gloucester from 1580 to 1640 and found six entries, one of which turned out to be to a missing will. There are no registered wills for this period; one must look at the original wills, many of which are in poor physical condition and a majority of which do not have probate data entered. They are simply arranged by year and a number arbitrarily given to them.

1589, No. 19 Will of Edmund Williams of Wotton under Edge, dated 2 October 1589, no probate act. Occupation not given. Executrix and residuary legatee, wife Katharine. The will also names children John, Joan, Agnes and Denice and mentions property of Theobald Williams "his mother".

1593, No. 97 Will of Katherine Williams of Wotton under Edge, widow, dated 18 January 33 Elizabeth [1590/1], no probate act (but apparently proved in 1593). Executor and residuary legatee, son John. The will also names daughters, Joan, Agnes and "Deans".

[Note: This will be the will of Edmund brother of John Williams in the TAG pedigree and of his widow. It would seem that John Williams had both a wife and a mother named Theobald. Note that there is no reference to a Matthew Williams in either instrument.]

1595, No. 129 Will of Richard Williams of North Nibley, fuller, dated 10 April 1595, no probate act. Executrix and residuary legatee, wife Helen. No mention of other persons named Williams.

[Note: North Nibley is a nearby parish and the occupation looked promising.]

1622, No. 91 Will of John Williams of Wotton under Edge, yeoman, dated 1621 (day and month omitted), proved 4 June 1622, signed by mark Executor, wife Katherine. Also names: son, John, daughter Alice, son-in-law William Berry, children of son-in-law Thomas Browne, children of son-in-law, Anthony Pinsott.

1625, No. 19 Will of Katherine Williams of Wotton under Edge. Missing from file.

[Note: this is very likely the will of the uncle of the immigrant Richard Williams and the missing will probably belongs to his widow Katherine. Note that no reference appears to anyone named Matthew Williams.]

1639, No. 178 Will of Richard Williams of Brockwear in the parish of Huelsfield [Hewelsfield], yeoman, dated 29 December 1638, proved 20 May 1639. Executrix and residuary legatee: wife Johan. Children: Richard, Matthew (to whom he left the remaining terms of several leaseholds), Barbara and Elizabeth. £5 was left to each child of his son Matthew.

[Note: this is the only will that mentioned a Matthew Williams. Matthew was old enough to have children of his own. The Hewetsfield register is lost before 1663 and for Bishop's Transcripts there are only fragments for the years 1586-92 and, curiously, 1638. On the latter is recorded the burial for Richard Williams on 23 March 1638/9. It is possible that this was the father of Matthew Williams of Wotton-under-Edge, though there is some distance between the two parishes.]

You asked about Men & Armour for Gloucestershire in 1608 and I enclose the relevant page. The fact that two men of the same surname are listed together does not necessarily mean that they are (1) brothers or (2) father and son. They may not be related at all. The Matthew Williams would very likely be the father of Matthew baptized in 1611/2. In the end there seems to be nothing to confirm or to deny that this younger Matthew might be the emigrant to Connecticut.
Note: Dr. Thompson supplemented this report by letter reading as follows: "I should have added that Elizabeth Williams, widow of Matthew Williams of Brockwear, was appointed to administer his intestate estate on 22 April 1658 (Prerogative Court of Canterbury, Admon. Books 1658), this being a period in which all English estates were administered out of Canterbury, and that the North Nibley Registers mention no Matthew Williams.

Pages 163-164, from Men & Armour, Gloucestershire in 1608, by John Smith (1980) show the following: Synwell. Whereof the Lord Viscount is Lord. For Gloucestershire in 1608: Mattewe William,s, fuller, 1, ca ('1 ca' means about age 20 and of lower stature fitt to serve with a caltver).

25 July 2001 (Dr. Thompson continues)

As you requested, I have re-examined the Matthew Williams problem. One thing that was not apparent from the article in TAG 9, which includes citations from the parish register of Wotton-under-Edge, co. Gloucester, is that there is a significant gap in those registers. I asked the Gloucester Record Office to confirm this and there is a gap in baptisms in 1588-98 and 1600-01, in marriages in 1587-98 and 1600-01 and in burials in 1587-98 and 1600-01. This gap would have covered the baptism of the elder Matthew Williams and very likely concealed for all time the exact relationship of Matthew Williams, fuller, reported in the 1608 muster. A surviving BT covers 1600 but adds nothing.
I did review the entire TAG article in order to see if anything new might be extracted from it. I also re-examined the original wills of John Williams, dated 17 April 1578, no probate date in 1578/9 [CC Gloucester, Original Wills, 1579, No. 50], the will of William Williams, dated 26 September 1618 and proved 14 January 1618/9 [id., 1618, No. 251], and of Richard Williams of Brockwear, dated 29 December 1638 and proved 20 May 1639 [id., 1639, No. 178]. In this connection the widow of this Richard Williams died intestate and there is in the administration acts of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury a note that on 22 April 1658, letters of administration issued on the estate of Elizabeth Williams, widow of Matthew Williams of Brockwear [PCC Admon. Acts, 1658, f. 86]. There was also the will of Richard Williams of North Nibley, a parish adjacent to Wotton-under-edge, dated 10 April 1595 and probate date not shown [CC Gloucester, Original Wills, 1595, No. 129] naming his wife Helen as his executrix but not mentioning any Matthew Williams in any capacity.

Because some secondary sources say that John Williams of Wotton-under-Edge who died in 1578 was a son of Richard Williams of Dixton, co. Monmouth, I checked the records of this parish. As is typical in this part of co. Monmouth, the registers and BTs commence only in 1660. However, Richard Williams of Dixton left a will, dated 6 April 1559, probate date not shown [CC Gloucester, Original Wills, 1559, No. 255], which mentions his wife Christian as residuary legatee and executrix, and also remembers his son John Williams and his younger brother John Williams, so this part of the traditional pedigree may be accurate even though there seems to be no proof of the parentage of this Richard Williams or of any connection with Morgan Williams, ancestor of Oliver Cromwell. The parish of Dixton Newton is on the northeastern border of co. Monmouth and a move by someone from this parish south and east to Wotton-under-Edge would be reasonable.

A subsidy [tax] was taken in co. Gloucester in 1621, but no Williams families were taxed at all in Wotton-under-Edge or Synwell, which may indicate that Matthew and Elinor Williams and their son Matthew had moved from the parish by then. As I previously reported, no Matthew Williams probate of relevance was found in PCC or the Consistory Court of Gloucester.

I thought it was worthwhile to check for Blisse and Sheppard probates in the area. No Bliss[e] probates in PCC and only two Sheppard probates form Wotton-under-Edge in CC Gloucester [none from PCC and no CC Gloucester probates for Bliss(e)]. These were: CC Gloucester, 1616, No. 123, will of Richard Sheppard, dated 13 March 1615/6, proved 29 March 1616, naming wife Margery, children John, William, Robert and Margaret, and id., 1616, No. 112, will of his widow Margery Sheppard, dated 14 March 1615/6 and proved 29 March 1616, naming the same children. There were no Williams references at all.

The will of Richard Williams of Newelsfield mentioned in a prior report is supported by his burial 23 March 1638/9 [BT Newelsfield, no PRs for the period] and there is an earlier burial of an Ann, wife of Richard Williams, 7 July 1859 in the same parish who was probably of this same family [BTs only for 1586-92 and 1638]. The Elizabeth, widow of Matthew Williams of Brockwear, was probably the widow of the son Matthew named in Richard Williams' will, so it appears that this family cannot be connected to Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, Conn.

Everything that has survived puts no barrier in the way of the theory that Matthew Williams of Wethersfield is that child baptized at Wotton-under-Edge on 7 January 1611/12, a son of Matthew and Elinor (Blisse) Williams. Matthew could have been a son of Richard and Katharine (Plomer) Williams, married at Wotton-under-Edge 15 November 1585. He might also have been a son of Hugh Williams, under 24 in 1578, but unlikely to be a son of John Williams, also mentioned in the will of his father, John Williams, because this John Williams is likely the man buried at Wotton-under-Edge 25 January 1583. If Matthew Williams, husband of Elinor Blisse, was a son of Richard and Katherine (Plomer) Williams—very likely the Richard who was buried 8 June 1604 and the Katherine who was buried 24 April 1624—the connection with Richard Williams of Taunton may never be established, but I am convinced that there is some connection.

You asked about ecclesiastical records of Gloucester. There is an index called the Hockaday index made by someone who spent years with the records of the church courts and the like. This index is at the Gloucester Record Office, but a copy is here and I have found it useful sometimes in tracing persons named in church court records and the like. However, nothing on Matthew or Richard Williams appears in this index, so it would probably not be worthwhile to spend the large sum required to do a search of those records.

Dear Lyle:

Here are the extracts from The Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut and Records of the Particular Court of Connecticut that you wanted. I thought I had gone over much of this in my prior report but, if not, I am pleased to review the material again. The earliest Particular Court cites are omitted because they duplicate the Public Record entries and in general it is best to cite the Public Records collection.

Public Records of Connecticut

1:129	10 Jul 1645	This speaks for itself.
1:135	4 Dec 1645	It is evident that Matthew Williams has fathered a child upon Susan Cole – sex unknown, date of birth unknown.
1:143		This is probably a simple action for debt. If we knew what business "Mr. Euens" was in we might know what it was that Matthew Williams had not paid for prior to 1 October 1646.
1:168	17 Oct 1648	Matthew Williams has posted security for his court appearance; failing to appear, he forfeited his bond. This probably had to do with the 1 Oct. 1646 judgment.
1:381	15 May 1662	Matthew Williams may have been dead or he may have deserted his family. It looks as if his wife had been possessed of a Bible and was herself dead, so that the right to own this Bible and other books which had been that of the wife of Matthew Williams was now that of her children. The children are apparently under guardianship or apprenticeship if I read correctly the reference to "their time". Mrs. Williams may have been bequeathed the Bible and other books by a relative.
1:396	11 Mar 1662/3	This seems to relate to the same Bible and shows that the estate of Mrs. Williams was insolvent.
1:433	13 Oct 1664	It appears that the prior instructions were not carried out and three persons are now directed to satisfy the demands of the creditors of the estate of the wife of Matthew Williams so far as the estate permits.

Particular Court of Connecticut

1:105	21 Oct 1651	It is not clear whether Matthew Williams is connected with the problem of "Kircum" [Kirkham] and his wife or is being whipped for some other reason.
1:122-3	2 Mar 1653/4	Zachariah Field obtained a judgment against Matthew Williams on a debt for £3 10s and costs and execution issued 9 May 1654 for a total of £3 17s4d.
1:137	13 Nov 1654	A Grand Jury made a presentment on behalf of the Town of Wethersfield to hold the town harmless from the failure of Matthew Williams and John Lyley to give sufficient security to answer the accusation against them of sexual relations with a female slave belonging to Mr. Chester. Under the law and practice of that time, under some circumstances a town might be held liable to pay a fine not paid by this kind of offender.

The record of 17 October 1648 has nothing that I can see to do with Quakers, and there is no evidence in the documents enclosed that Matthew Williams and Susan Cole ever married. If there is some other record that his wife's name was Susan, it is possible that they married after 4 December 1645.

These are the only references (except for duplications) to Matthew Williams in these two volumes.

With continued best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

(signed)

Neil D. Thompson

APPROXIMATE DEATH DATES FOR MATTHEW & SUSANNAH WILLIAMS, OF WETHERSFIELD, CONNECTICUT

Gale Ion Harris, J.D., Ph.D., wrote the author on June 29, 1994, commenting on the lineage of Matthew Williams. This letter is reproduced below with permission. (Dr. Harris had previously reviewed the book, Matthew Williams (c1612-c1666) of Wethersfield, CT and Descendants by Lyle Keith Williams, which appeared on pages 59-60, Vol. 71, #1, The American Genealogist, dated January 1, 1996.)

Dear Mr. Williams:

It was most kind of you to send a copy of your work on Wethersfield's Matthew Williams. Obviously, you have put a great effort into it; I am pleased to have it for all the useful information it contains.

This Matthew has, of course, turned up several times in my own work on Wethersfield families. For example, I am currently working on an article about George Chappell, Matthew's companion in the October 1648 Particular Court Record printed at page 255 of your book. I happen to descend from Wethersfield's Thomas Williams, but, like you, I find nothing to prove that Thomas and Matthew were related. Incidentally, so far as I know, neither of these men was related to the William Williams of Hartford who appears in the April 1994 TAG article you mentioned. In fact, I know nothing at all about William Williams' ancestry. I am particularly impressed that you recognized and cut through the speculation about Matthew's ancestry and other shoddy work about him that appears in Stiles and other printed compilations.

I am also impressed that you sought out Neil Thompson's skills; he is one of the best in the business today. I do have, however, a caution to offer about his analysis concerning Matthew's "desertion". If I understand his reasoning correctly, he was drawn to a conclusion that Matthew was probably alive but had deserted his family before 13 Oct. 1664 when Samuel Boreman, Mr. Chester, and Samuel Wells were ordered to dispose of the estate of "Math. Williams, his wife" (pages 251, 257, your book). The word "wife" used in this record—instead of "widow" or "relict"—does seem to imply that Matthew was alive somewhere when she died. There exists, however, some evidence to the contrary in Winthrop's Medical Records (incidentally, not available to Dr. Thompson in Salt Lake City).

As you probably know, from 1657 to 1670, while Deputy Governor and Governor in Hartford, John Winthrop, Jr., treated as a practical physical many people in Connecticut and surrounding colonies. In each case, he made an entry in his medical "journal", sometimes cryptic, sometimes plain to read, and sometimes an almost indecipherable scrawl. For my Williams article in TAG, I transcribed as best I could every entry in a microfilm copy of his original journal for anyone named Williams. Many of these entries for William Williams and family are cited in the TAG article. There are other entries for Williams families in Windsor and Branford, Conn. Of particular interest here, however, are several entries (prescriptions) for the Williams families of Wethersfield. Most relate to Thomas Williams and his family, but two of them almost certainly refer to the Matthew Williams family. They are as follows, both dated at Wethersfield, 8 July 1659:

Bottom of p. 347 (a difficult scrawl, not completely deciphered):

Williams [ye?] widow hat...ey[sight?]... use water for ye Ey.

Top of p. 348 (clearly written and next entry after above):

Williams, Sam: 5y. feare wormes <prescription>

Clearly, these entries do not refer to Thomas Williams' family; he was alive and so had no widow in 1659. This widow and the five-year old son of Samuel Williams must be Matthew Williams' widow and their son, Samuel, born at Wethersfield on 4 Jan. 1653 [or 1653/4] discussed in your chapter 4.

Therefore, despite the October 1664 Particular Court record that refers to her then as the deceased "wife" of Matthew Williams, I think it is certain that she was Matthew's widow in July 1659. If so, there is no reason to conclude that he had deserted his family. Instead, it seems that he died, probably at Wethersfield, sometime between 13 Nov. 1654 (when he was accused of the act with Mr. Chester's black servant) and 8 July 1659 when Winthrop prescribed for his "widow" and five-year old son Samuel. Similarly, the widow (apparently Susannah Cole) seems to have died there after 8 July 1659 and before 15 May 1662 when the court made some provisions for "the Bible that was sent to Goodwife Williams".

Except for this important point, I concur completely with Dr. Thompson's analysis of the scanty records. Although these surviving records seem to reflect an "unsavory character" as you say (page 3), perhaps the poor fellow is at least not guilty of deserting his family except by his premature passing from this life.

Again, many thanks for sharing your work with me.

Sincerely,

(signed)

Gale I. Harris

APPENDIX 12

ROGER WILLIAMS (c1603-1683)

Genealogists have tried to reflect a kinship between Richard Williams of Taunton, MA, Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, and Oliver Cromwell. Oliver Cromwell, who actually married under the name of Oliver Williams, alias Cromwell, had his early origins in Wales, as traditionally did Matthew Williams and Richard Williams of Taunton. Oliver Cromwell's family adopted the maternal surname of Cromwell vs. Williams in an attempt to curry favor with the English throne.

The idea probably stemmed from early publications, such as The New-England Historical and Genealogical Register for the year 1883, p. 236 (see Appendix 4). There have been a number of genealogies written on the descendants of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT that reflect that Matthew Williams was the son of Richard Williams of Taunton, or at least a kinsman. Undoubtedly, these beliefs were based on The History of Ancient Wethersfield, 1904, by Henry R. Stiles, Vol. II, page 823, which states, "Matthew Williams, born about 1605, in Wales, is supposed to have been the eldest son of Mr. Richard Williams, who came from Glamorgan, Wales to America, with his family in 1620-21." He goes on, "Inasmuch as tradition also affirms that Matthew of Wethersfield was of an ancient Welsh family of Glamorganshire and a kindsman of Oliver Cromwell, a traditional claim of Richard Williams as well ..."

Several of these genealogies depicting the descendants of Matthew Williams, also allege that the great religious leader Roger Williams was a kinsman. Thus, generation down through generation, the descendants of Matthew Williams passed on the tradition that they were in some manner a kinsman of Roger Williams.

The situation is compounded by the fact that Roger Williams' lineage is murky, at best, because the great fire of London in 1666 destroyed the records of St. Sepulchre's Parish where the Williams family was affiliated. Different biographical sketches state that he was born in Wales and his date of birth has been given ranging from as early as 1596 to 1603. A generally accepted source on the life of Roger Williams is the book, The Baptist Heritage—Four Centuries of Baptist Witness by H. Leon McBeth (Boardman Press, Nashville, 1987). From this source we learn that Roger Williams was born in London, England, about 1603 and died in Providence, RI, in 1684. He was the son of James Williams and the former Alice Pemberton. His lineage has not been traced further back. But since the surname Williams is of Welsh origins, there is a good possibility that his family did originate in Wales before coming to London.

We will sum up his life in a brief sketch: Roger Williams was unable to marry his first love, Jane Whalley, "a young woman of elevated social status" and this caused him to suffer "deep depression and high fever". He was nursed back to good health by Mary Barnard, "a young woman of more modest social status", and they were married 15 Dec 1629. She proved to be a great helpmate to him throughout his life.

By the time of his marriage, he had become a rigid Separatist and believed strongly that each man could read the Bible for himself, and interpret for himself. If he remained in England, he would almost of a certainty be imprisoned for his beliefs. Accordingly, he accepted a call to the New World, and he and his wife sailed on the ship Lyon, arriving in Nanaskot (Boston) in 1635. There he continued to encounter difficulty with the colonial authorities because of his Separatist views, and he and a few others of like belief migrated to Providence, RI plantations, just outside the Massachusetts Bay jurisdiction.

Author McBeth states that "sometime before March 16, 1639, Roger Williams and several others formed a Baptist church in Providence, the earliest Baptist church in the free world."

This brief chapter is incorporated in this Williams genealogy for the purpose of stating there is no proof that we are of the same family of Roger Williams. Neither is there any proof that the two families were not in some manner connected in earlier times in Wales.

APPENDIX 13

CLUES FOR THE ANCESTRY OF MATTHEW WILLIAMS OF WETHERSFIELD, CONNECTICUT

At the outset we must say that we have not learned the ancestry of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, Connecticut.

We have no proof that Matthew Williams and Thomas Williams of Wethersfield were related to one another.

We have no proof that either Matthew Williams or Thomas Williams was related to Richard Williams of Taunton, Massachusetts.

The above three statements go contrary to more than 20 genealogical sources, which (a) suggest a relationship between Matthew and Thomas Williams, and (b) a connection to Richard Williams of Taunton. But there is no proof that we have been able to find that would establish such a relationship. Again, we come to the conclusion that all 20 and more genealogies rely on The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Connecticut and the accounts of its author, Henry R. Stiles. We have proved his main theory incorrect; viz., that Matthew and Thomas were sons of Richard of Taunton.

Yet....tradition and family lore may have a place in solving the genealogical problem. It could be that there is some basis for Matthew and Thomas Williams being connected to the same family that produced Richard of Taunton.

Items to keep in mind:

1. Matthew and Thomas were early settlers in Wethersfield. It was some years later before another Williams family settled there. descendants of Robert Williams of Roxbury.

2. Families did tend to migrate together. Usually there was the "pioneer" member of the family who went to the New World and his encouragement influenced others to brave the perils of relocating for the benefits of free land and a chance to improve their lot. Thus, Matthew could have come first and Thomas (his brother or other kinsman) followed. There was very little (if any) intermarriage between the descendants of Thomas and Matthew Williams, which suggests a ban on close-kin marriages. Matthew had no descendants in Wethersfield, except his son AMOS, as his other two sons relocated to New Jersey.

3. Richard Williams migrated from County Gloucestershire to Taunton, Massachusetts. Taunton is situated about 270 land miles from Wethersfield, which is an easier (but farther) trip via the Connecticut River traffic. There was no intermarriage between the descendants of the three families; again, a suggestion of a ban because of too-close kin.

4. When Stiles wrote his accounts in 1904, that represented a span of about 270 years from the time Matthew came to Wethersfield. Stiles admittedly relied on the two ladies he identified (Appendix 3) for assistance. They must have supplied the information to him other than what was available in the Connecticut public records, which identified his wife and four children. We don't know whether the two ladies had family records of some kind or were just depending on family lore and tradition to connect Matthew and Thomas Williams to Richard Williams of Taunton. But, in the absence of any other record, and, admittedly clutching at straws, it seems logical that they may have been correct in a general sense, if not in a verifiable sense. (We would be the first to admit that family lore and traditions become warped over a span of time.)

5. Assuming that a family connection did exist, we examined Richard Williams' heritage in County Gloucester, England (just across the river Severn from Glamorgan, Wales) and we find a number of Matthew Williames, even in the incomplete records. Matthew Williamses who could fit the mold of time and place. Tantalizing if not provable with existing records.

6. Matthew and Thomas Williams could have descended from one of Richard Williams's brothers, about whom we know nothing. They could have descended from one of John's sons whom we know nothing about. We only know one of John's brothers, Edmund. There could have been others, giving the propensity of families of these times to have many children.

7. A compelling thought is that the family of Richard Williams lived in the hamlet of Synwell, Wotton-under-Edge, County Gloucester. A relatively small area. It would seem logical that the Williams families of Synwell mentioned in Appendix 6 ("English Ancestry of Richard Williams and his wife, Frances (Deighton) Williams"), were kin. And a number of Matthew Williamses fitting the age and time frame were from this area. Surely, one of them was Matthew Williams! So goes the thought process.

For these exciting possibilities, it was decided to include these Appendix items in this genealogy, hoping they could be of help to other researchers striving to find the lineage of Matthew and Thomas Williams.

APPENDIX 14

ENOS WILLIAMS

This appendix details the research effort trying to find the parents of ENOS WILLIAMS (c1750/51-1811) of Essex Co., NJ. We have tried for 27 years to learn about him and have examined all available public records and numerous family genealogies. I have published three (3) Williams genealogies and all are incorrect with respect to Enos Williams, as described below:

- The first genealogy in 1976 was entitled The Batchelor-Williams Families and Related Lines. I thought I had identified the father of Enos Williams as a son of Zadok Williams, based on a newspaper article in Licking County, Ohio, which correctly named his children and said that he was a brother of Simeon Williams of New Jersey. Unfortunately, subsequent research revealed that Zadok did not have a son named Enos Williams. The error was perpetuated in my next two Williams genealogies, Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT and Descendants (1994) and my 1998 genealogy, The Williams Families of New Jersey (Descendants of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, CT).

- A genealogy by Tenney Smith, Charles Smith and Rachel Amy Bryant, identified Enos Williams as a son of Benjamin Williams. This Benjamin Williams did have a son, Enos Crane Williams, whose line has been well documented, but this is not our Enos Williams who married Susannah Ogden.

- I had another genealogist, Neil D. Thompson, Ph.D., LL.B., C.G., look over Mr. Sisser's report and his letter of January 12, 1999 is attached. The areas which Dr. Thompson discusses could be helpful to future research on the part of someone.

- Mr. Sisser, in an earlier report dated September 14, 1998, found another Amos, namely Amos Williams the third, who is first of record in 1742 and is no doubt the father who paid a medical bill for a son Enos in the same year. He is most likely the Amos Williams who married Abiah ____ and had two infant sons buried at Orange in 1736 and 1741, respectively.

Likewise, we are somewhat troubled by the fact that descendants of Enos Williams in Ohio, who provided information for biographical sketches of prominent men, state that Enos came from Vermont (see attached Portrait and Biographical Record of Putnam County, Ohio). Mr. Sisser could find no basis for this view, and we are in agreement that Enos, who lived in the same community as the known Williams families and whose descendants named their children, Gershom, Simeon, etc., after these New Jersey personages, were kinsmen. But an open mind must be maintained. Mr. Sisser comments on the Vermont connection thusly: "I could find no suggestion that Enos of Amos came from the area of Vermont, which in the 1700s was part of Massachusetts."

Additionally, concerning the possible connection to Vermont, we asked Alice Eichholz, Ph.D., C.G., of Montpelier, Vermont to investigate this matter. Her reply of 25 Aug 2002, attached hereto, is self-explanatory. There is no evidence that Enos Williams came from Vermont. It would seem that this was a family tradition, without foundation, passed down from generation to generation.

Having exhausted all known sources and clues, we are ready to accept genealogist Sisser's hypothetically constructed lineage with the disclaimer that future research on the part of others might possibly challenge this work. Mr. Sisser's analysis also tends to support the fact that Amos Williams "the third" was the son of Amos Williams, Jr., of Amos Williams, of Matthew Williams (1).

Re: Enos Williams

Dear Lyle:

Thank you for asking me to look further into the matter of the parentage of Enos Williams of Caldwell, New Jersey (died 1811). I am returning the report of Fred Sisser to you and must say that I agree with his conclusion that your ancestor Enos Williams was not a son of Zadoc Williams. Had he been such a son, it is difficult for me to believe that Zadoc Williams would not have left at least a token bequest to one or more of Enos's children, who would, after all, have been his grandchildren, even if otherwise provided for. Moreover, neither in the land records nor elsewhere is the slightest hint found that Enos Williams was a son of Zadoc Williams by an earlier wife or, indeed, that Zadoc had an earlier wife; you yourself have noted that he could not have been a son of Rachel (Kent) Williams, born in 1741, when he was born in or about 1752 according to his gravestone [GMNJ 2:61 (1926)].

I tried to work out further the family of Zadoc's father Gershom Williams on the suggestion by Mr. Sisser that Enos just might have been a younger son, born late in his mother's life at the end of her childbearing years. This does sometime happen but there is no evidence whatever for its happening in this case.

Essex County deeds are very defective for the entire 18th century period and, unfortunately, Deed Book A was destroyed by fire after it was indexed. I say this because A:395, no date shown, was a deed from Enos Williams and his wife—and perhaps others—to Thomas Ogden (a brother of Susanna, perhaps?), which might have been helpful. Three deeds which do survive are of some interest with respect to the witnesses to the second deed:

O:82 Enos Williams to Swain and Gershom Williams, all of Caldwell, for $500, all his land in Caldwell 16 June 1808, ackn. and rec. 21 September 1808. No wife participated

P:113 Gershom and Swain Williams to Enos Williams, all of Caldwell, for $500, reconvey the Caldwell land Fanny, wife of Gershom Williams, participates Witnesses: Zadock Williams Jr. and Simeon Williams 27 April 1809, ackn. by a witness 23 May 1809, dower renounced 29 May 1809, rec. 29 May 1809

S:89 Enos Williams and wife Susannah to Samuel Williams, all of Caldwell, for love and $25, 26+ and 6+ acres in Caldwell 8 April 1805, ackn. 20 May 1805, rec. 15 March 1811

Note that two sons of Zadock Williams witnessed the second deed (they were also neighbors) and that the third deed was withheld from recording until Enos Williams died. Usually one would have expected to find deeds to Enos for his land, but none appear even in the indices, or in the fragments of Essex County deeds re-recorded in Passaic County.

Mr. Sisser already tried to find probate documents for Gershom and Amos[3] Williams, without success, and I had no better luck. I noted that you have already checked the major C. C. Gardner collection so I passed that up, but I did not see that you or Mr. Sisser checked the separate C. C. Gardner collection devoted to Essex County and housed at Rutgers University. It is a series of card indices and I copied one of the Amos Williams cards and enclose it, with particular attention to the item dated 18 March 1751[/2] relating to Abiah Williams. This item is important because it establishes that Abiah was still living during the period when Enos was born; we already know from Mr. Sisser's report that Amos was alive long enough to father him. My examination of Essex County court records turned up nothing more of value. I also checked the John P. Dornan and Verna Hill Jacob collections on film here; neither dealt with this Williams family.

Like Mr. Sisser, I give some weight to his secondary source records in Nos. 19 and 20, the first of which was almost old enough to be contemporary with the children of Enos Williams. Christian names like Gershom could have been borrowed from nearby relatives or from the family of Amos' wife Abia ---, whose family connections simply do not appear from probate or limited surviving land records [East New Jersey Deeds or Essex County deeds, both of which I checked].

You already have examined local cemetery records and local church records seem to start too late to reveal a baptism for Enos Williams. The age at death attributed to him is most likely correct, given his appearance. I went through later volumes of the Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey not covered by the published every-name indexes but found nothing more helpful. So, with probate, land, court, church and cemetery records reviewed, and with your having already covered the secondary sources such as the Ogden genealogies, I conclude that it is more probable than not that your ancestor Enos Williams was in fact one of several children of Amos and Abia (---) Williams and that there were probably other children besides Enos and the two that died whose gravestone records you have for whom there are no surviving records at all.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Williams:

In response to your request of 11 May 2001, I have conducted an in-depth research on "Amos Williams third", whom we both concurred was the probable father of your established ancestor, Enos Williams (c. 1751-1811). In my efforts to prove this father-son relationship, 1 left "no stones unturned" in work completed in those New Jersey depositories where 1 felt the most could be found on the family of Amos Williams "third." Your various missives over the past months, containing suggestions and specific references, proved most helpful, for which 1 thank you.

Ironically, in my concentrated search on Amos Williams, I came upon but one prime source which refers to him as the "third," aside for that 1735 court minute referred to in my previous report. This record, found at the New Jersey State Archives notes that on 17 September 1734, at "New Ark," "Amos Williams third" secured a loan of £3.1.3 from "Swain Ogden." When Amos "third" failed to pay on this debt, Swain preferred charges in the Essex County court of April 1737 ("1"). While the outcome of this litigation is not indicated, it is significant to note that the plaintiff was the paternal grandfather of Susannah Ogden, who married Enos Williams, thus indicating an interesting correlation at this early date ("2"). This record, ostensibly, would have Amos "third" born at least by 1710 -1715.

Further research for details on Amos revealed a fair number of references to simply an "Amos Williams", without an appellation. These included a variety of excellent prime sources from Essex County (e.g., "3" and "4"), as well as secondary published sources (e.g., "5" and "6"). However, in some instances among these references, clues were afforded enabling me to separate one Amos from another. For example, Amos Williams "one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Essex" in 1747 ("7"), clearly refers to the one who died in 1754. Conversely, the "Amos Williams" listed as a Freeholder of Newark Township in 1755 obviously refers to the probable father of Enos Williams ("8").

Apparently, considering the various Amos Williams' in the Newark Township area in the 1700s, Amos (Enos' probable father) made use of the "third" until the death of his father in 1744. After this date he went by the designation of "junior" until 1754, when, upon the death of Amos Williams "esquire"," he saw no reason for an appellation, and as the only Amos in the Williams family in Newark Township after that date, referred to himself as simply "Amos Williams."

This having been established, my efforts were directed, first, to Amos Williams "junior," and after 1754, to simply "Amos Williams," thus enabling me to concentrate on the proper individual whose relationship to Enos Williams I was trying to prove. However, this approach was not always foolproof, for a January 1735/36 Essex County court minute made reference to both "Amos Williams" and "Amos Williams Jun^{r}," each being sued for debt by the same man, George Emott ("9"). Supplemental information on the case indicated that this was undoubtedly Amos (1671-1744) and his son, the subject of this investigation ("10"). "Amos Williams Jun'r" was appointed among the "Surveyors of Highways" at the Newark Township Town Meeting of 1738, and "Assessor" at the Town Meeting of 1742 ("11"). It is interesting to note that years later Enos Williams was also among the "Overseers of the Highway" in Newark Township in 1797 ("11"). Likewise, at the time a subscription was made in 1753 for a second "meeting-house," Amos Williams, "Jr." and "Sr." are both represented ("5"), also allowing for some confusion.

Albeit, the most valuable record to survive on Amos Williams "third"/"junior", which affords the best insight on his family, is the account on him in the record book of Samuel Harrison (1684-1776), which is among the several references you brought to my attention. I inspected this original manuscript on file at the New Jersey Historical Society Library ("12").

Page 148 of Harrison's record book is devoted entirely to "Amos wilams Juner," one side being the debits ("D^{r}"), and the other side credits ("Credet"). The very first entry, without date, lists a debt for "a Cofen for your Child---00-03-0." Inasmuch as an entry two lines later is for "the year 1742/3," the coffin was probably for Amos' son "Abrah^{m}" who died in 1741 ("13"). After several inconsequential notations it is recorded, under "March 18, 1751" that Harrison "then Lent to abiah Williams----02-06-0," proving that Amos "Juner" was indeed the one who was married to "Abia/Abiah" ("13"). This memo does not imply that Amos had died by this date, for under "Credet" it is noted that "in year 1753" Harrison paid Amos £0.10.0 for "3 Days [work done by] he and his Boy." From 1753 to 1758 Amos was in debt to Harrison for wheat, pork, and "Ry." Amos was presumably still living on 14 March 1758 when Harrison noted that he "Recked [i.e., reckoned] with Jehanah williams on hur fathers aCount." Further on in 1758, one "Hanah Williams" is referred to, which may or may not signify "Jehanah." The last entry, without date, is "Credet for Hannah Williams—in Cash—0-3-6" ("12")

Elsewhere in Samuel Harrison's record book (page 117) is an accounting of his dealings with "Amos Williams," he perhaps being Amos "esquire." The first entry records "work Dun in the [year] 1745...at his Shop 5 Days." In June 1746 this Amos was charged for "wark at the Barn" and from 1747 to 1750 for the use of the "pres" (i.e., press) for making "Barels [of] Cyder." In the core of the memorandums, Harrison wrote in 1746/47 "then Recked with Amos Williams Esq: and Due to him --- 00-00-11," which suggests that this account was indeed with Amos "esquire". This is supported by the last entry under "Amos Williams", dated 5 March 1756, when Harrison wrote "then Recked with natheel williams on aCount of his Deicsed father" ("12").

Despite a careful review of all the other entries in Samuel Harrison's record book, these were the only references to an Amos Williams. Furthermore, I could find no additional information on Amos Williams among numerous other prime sources and manuscripts which I inspected at both the New Jersey Historical Society and the New Jersey State Archives. Nor could I find any suggestion that Enos (or Amos) came from the area of Vermont (which in the 1700s was part of Massachusetts). I briefly investigated "Samuel Allen," who paid the doctor's bill for Amos Williams in 1743 ("5"), on the off chance that he may have been some how related (perhaps by way of Abiah), and thus introducing the given name of Enos into Amos' family. This quest did not produce any positive results (see "14" and "15). In the same vain, I investigated "Samuel Tuttle of Hanover Township and Morris County", whose 1751 will was witnessed by "Amos Williams" ("16"). Because Hanover Township immediately adjointed Newark Township in 1751 ("17"), there was every reason to suspect that the Amos who witnessed Samuel's will was the presumed father of Enos Williams. Unfortunately, research on Samuel Tuttle failed to give any indication as to a possible relationship between Amos and Enos ("18" and "19").

Albeit, considering what I was able to find, the family of Amos Williams "third" may be hypothetically constructed as follows, which, you will notice, comfortably includes Enos Williams:

AMOS WILLIAMS, the son of Amos and Johannah (Wheeler) Williams, born circa 1712, Newark Township, Essex County, New Jersey; died circa 1758, probably Newark Township; married, circa 1734, ABIAH, surname unknown.
The known and probable children of Amos and Abiah WILLIAMS:

1. John, born 1 November 1735; died 4 May 1736.
2. Johannah, born circa 1738.
3. Abraham, born 17 August 1740; died 3 September 1741.
4. "his Boy", born circa 1743.
5. Enos, born circa 1750/51; died 8 March 1811.

Sincerely,

Fred Sisser III

NOTE:

Mr. Sisser attached a number of photocopies to his report as indicated, but they are not included in this Appendix as they were too dim to reproduce. The copies support his statements in the letter.

Dear Mr. Williams,

As you requested, I spent an hour trying to determine whether or not it would be worthwhile to pursue a possible connection for your Enos Williams (bc1751) in early Vermont.

I checked the 1771 "census" for families whose names appear in various records related to the settlement of Vermont. While there are about a dozen Williams families, the given name of Amos, Enos, Gershom, Benjamin are not among them. Records ARE available for a David, Elijah, Elijah Jr., Elisha, Joseph (several entries, possibly all the same person), Nathan, Roger, Samuel and William. The Samuel Williams was living in Guilford, VT at the time, just over the Massachusetts border.

Next, I checked the Vermont Vital Records Index 1760-1780 and found no records for any Enos Williams during this time period.

Finally, I surveyed the every-name index at the Vermont State Archives for references in all legislature and executive branch materials for the state (includes petitions, tax records, and a variety of correspondence from citizens to their government). There were no entries for Enos Williams in the section of the index dealing with pre 1800 materials. Nor were there any for Amos, Benjamin or Gershom. There are lots for Samuel and Joseph Williams and a number for David, who was clearly a Tory, and one for a Simeon in 1782 Windsor.

Looking at the material you sent, which I am returning, it seems at least possible that Samuel #36 could have slipped north and been the one who lived in Guilford, VT for a short while, but without doing considerable work on him in Connecticut and Guilford records, this would be difficult to determine. I must admit that there is nothing very convincing about the family of Amos #37 – the children, being born too far apart to at least have been unlikely from that same mother.

If this were a problem I was trying to solve, I would want to develop strict chronologies for Enos and all the Williams males he interacted with in any document, in addition to comparing the location of this land with same. The oldest son being Samuel might have been named for both grandfathers, not just his maternal grandfather, but that doesn't account for the use of the name Gershom.

That is the extent of what I covered in this hour. I am sorry that it was not more definitive with regard to Enos and his possible connection to Vermont, but from these early records, unless there is a connection to Samuel in Guilford, it does not seem likely he was in Vermont.

If you have additional questions, please feel free to let me know.

Sincerely,

FREEMAN S. WILLIAMS, M.D., was born in Susquehanna county, Pa., September 13, 1847, being the son of Swain O. and Mary M. (Doud) Williams. His father was born in Caldwell, N.Y., in the year 1809, being the son of Gersham Williams, who was a native of New Jersey and of English lineage, his father, Enos Williams, having been a native of Vermont, whence in early life he removed to New Jersey, being an active participant in the war of the Revolution, and doing loyal service in upholding the arms of the continental army. His son inherited this spirit of patriotism, and took part in the war of 1812. He finally removed to Pennsylvania, but eventually took up his abode in Ohio, in 1848, and located in Allen county, near Elida, where he was engaged in agricultural operations until 1858, when he came to the home of his son near Lima, where he lived until the hour of his death, which occurred in 1862 - his wife having passed away in 1856. He was originally a member of the whig party, but upon the organization of the republican party he identified himself therewith and remained a staunch adherent of the same ever afterward.

APPENDIX 15

Fred R. Williams & Hazel M. Warnick

(by Fred R. Williams, Jr. and Joanne W. Ellis, children of Fred & Hazel)

Fred was born 19 April 1898 in Shickshinny, PA, the third and last child of Montrose F. Williams and Mary Luella Kingsbury. He had a brother Archie (1895-1979), and a sister Nellie (1892-1959). On April 23, 1903, when Fred was just 5 years old, his Mother died in childbirth. For a while they had a stepmother taking care of them, but one day while Grandpa was working in the fields, she took all the furniture and left. When Fred was 9 years old and had finished the fourth grade, his father had no other option but to board his 3 children with families in Wilkes-Barre. Although Daddy never said so, I sensed that the children were separated and not kept together with one family. At age 15, Fred left and went out on his own. He made his way doing odd jobs, and he even told of working in New York City with his brother Archie. At one time Archie was a bellhop at the Fort Durkee Hotel on the Square in Wilkes-Barre. Fred's sister, Nellie, married Ernest Warnick, whose family owned and operated the Warnick Artificial Limb Business. Fred learned the trade and became very good in this line of work, even being able to carve a leg out of a large piece of wood. He also did beautiful leatherwork.

Hazel was born 20 April 1905 in Wilkes-Barre, PA, the seventh of eight children of Edward Hall Warnick and Emma Caroline Spears. Hazel had an uneventful childhood until age 16, when her father, whom she adored, suddenly died of a heart attack. He had promised her that if she made good marks in school, he would send her to college. His death dashed all hopes of college for her, and was a devastating experience in her life. To help support her widowed Mother who had no means of income, Hazel worked in Lazarus Department Store each day after school. After graduation from high school, she worked as a cashier for PP&L. Hazel became engaged to John Dando, Jr. (1904-1927), who was a lawyer and son of a prominent lawyer in town. John died suddenly and tragically while surveying the Susquehanna River. John's parents were so devastated and grief stricken that they were unable to function, so Hazel had to make all the funeral arrangements. Hazel's sister Edna (our Aunt Ted) said Hazel just sat at the funeral viewing with her jaw set, and never shed a tear.

Fred & Hazel eloped and married on June 1, 1928, in Binghamton, NY. It is interesting to note that Hazel was Uncle Ernie's sister, and Fred was Aunt Nellie's brother. Fred and Hazel settled near Boston, MA, where Fred had accepted employment with the Hanger Artificial Limb Company. They lived across the river in Cambridge, MA. The next year, on 12 April 1929, they had premature fraternal twin girls, the first set of twins in 20 years at the Boston Hospital. Fred was hospitalized at the same time with Shingles. The twins were premature, weighing 4½ lbs. and 3-lbs. 5 oz. The first twin, June, was able to go home right away, but Joanne, the second twin, was hospitalized for 2 months. Hazel had to take milk to Joanne in the hospital every day, go visit Fred in another hospital, and then go back home. They had no car, so she used public transportation. And since she was also nursing June, she had to take June with her everywhere. They had no family in Boston, so they had no one else to help them. On 22 April 1937, a son, Fred, Jr., was born. Mother told of a time when Fred Jr. was in his carriage covered with netting on the front porch, and she came out to check on him. She found a cat sitting on his face, threw the cat out of the carriage, and then made sure he was still breathing. It was a frightening experience for her. In 1938, Ernest and Nellie visited our family in Massachusetts, and Ernest asked Fred to come back to Wilkes-Barre and work with him in the family business. Subsequently, in September 1938, Fred and Hazel and their 3 children traveled by train back to Wilkes-Barre, PA. The day after we left Cambridge, there was a hurricane that did a lot of damage in Massachusetts. In 1944 Mother and Daddy moved several miles, from a rented house at 56 Carey Avenue to their new home at 27 Gates Street. Both residences were in Wilkes-Barre, PA. They later purchased this house. I remember Daddy often saying that he felt fortunate that he was able to provide for his family even though he was schooled only through the fourth grade. To speak with him you would think that he had much more education. He was soft-spoken and very kind, and I never remember him ever raising his voice in anger.

During the war, Daddy was eligible for an "A" gas sticker. An "A" sticker on your windshield allowed you to purchase more gasoline than any other sticker issued. This was due to the fact that every weekend the family drove about 20 miles to Shickshinny to take food and check on Grandpa Williams, who was elderly, senile, and unable to care for himself. We made these trips in the "Green Terror", a 1934 Olds sedan that was, of course, painted green. For some reason, Mother used a powder puff to paint the car, and this was the talk of the neighbors. Fred used to sit on a small wooden box between Mom and Dad whenever they drove. Once Dad stopped suddenly and Fred (age of 3) crashed into the rear view mirror cracking it. I also remember picking up hitchhikers and letting them stand on the running board during their short journey. On our way to the farm, we would stop in Shickshinny at a very good bakery and buy a cake to take with the other food we had brought with us. When it was cold weather, we would sleep in the room above the kitchen, where a coal stove was kept going. In our room there was a register that we opened to let some heat to come up. In the morning, we would grab our clothes and run downstairs to get dressed in front of the coal stove. There was no running water in the house, but there was a pump outside where we got water. There was also an outhouse a short distance from the house. These trips to the country were real adventures for us kids! We didn't get to know Grandpa Williams, as he was senile and unable to know what was happening. I remember that he seemed so lost and sad.

Joanne: When we drove into the farm on our weekly visits, Grandpa Williams would pick up an empty suitcase and start walking down the road. He thought that this wasn't his home and he would leave. Daddy would have to run after him and convince him that this was his home and we were only there to visit him. Mother would go into the house to clean up and we were not allowed inside until she had everything in order. Then on our way home after spending the weekend at Grandpa's farm, we would stop again in Shickshinny for ice cream cones which cost 5¢ a dip. It was a real treat for us.

We remember Daddy plowing the field across the road from the house and planting potatoes and corn. It was a family effort to plant and weed the field and I remember snapping potato bugs off the leaves of the potato plants. One year they decided to can the corn, and arrangements were made at a nearby school to use their cannery. Daddy, Mother, Uncle Ernie, Aunt Nellie, and us kids all helped. We picked the corn about 5:00 AM, and then went to the school. The men husked the corn and the women cut the corn off the cobs, filled the cans putting a pinch of salt in each can. Then they cooked and sealed the cans. We divided the cans 3 ways, 1/3 for Aunt Nellie, 1/3 for Uncle Archie, and 1/3 for us. It was a very long day and we were tired when we finished. We only had that one Saturday to do everything.

Joanne: I remember the time around 1943 that Daddy took June and me to the store so that we could show him what we wanted from Santa Claus that year. June showed him an Erector Set and I showed him a Sonja Heinie doll with a case of clothes. The doll was wearing a white fur trimmed skating outfit. We were so happy on Christmas morning that Daddy was able to let Santa know what we wanted! Yes, we still believed in Santa Claus!

Joanne: Daddy's father, Montrose, died on 26 February 1945 (age 86 years, 1 day) in Shickshinny, PA. His funeral was the first that I attended. He was buried from the farmhouse in Shickshinny. I still remember how deeply Daddy grieved for his father.

Joanne: Another time I vividly remember was around 1945 when we were eating popcorn, and a piece of it lodged in my throat. After several attempts to dislodge it failed, Daddy put me in the car and we were driving to Mercy Hospital Emergency Room when it finally dislodged, just before we got there. To this day, I still do not eat popcorn.

Fred: After Aunt Ruth and Uncle Ray bought a cottage at Harvey's Lake, we were invited there for every holiday. The men would sit on the front porch (mostly listening to Uncle Ray) while the women were busy preparing the food. Any other relatives in the area at the time would also come for the day.

Fred: In the early 1950's Mother went into the hospital to have foot surgery and the doctors discovered a tumor in her abdomen. Dad had to sign papers for her operation, so there was no way to keep it a secret from him so he would not worry. Instead, Dad was told that the operation would be the following day. It was fortunate that everything went as planned.

Joanne: Mother's first cousin (once removed), Charlotte "Lottie" Jones, lived for a time at the "Old Ladies Home" on the corner of Gates Street and Carey Avenue, which was about a block from our house. She went into the "Home" after her sister that lived with her died, and she was lonely. She would walk to our house and sit on the front porch with Daddy, and Mother would serve dessert. Lottie said that the "Home" didn't serve large enough portions for her and she was always hungry, so Mother would also serve her our leftovers from dinner. She finally left the home and went back to Atlantic City, where she had lived most of her life. She lived there in an apartment until she died 26 March 1959. I remember visiting Lottie in Atlantic City when Tudor and I lived in Levittown, and spending the day with her. After Lottie died, Fred remembers going to her apartment in search of her will. A homemade will was found inside the oven taped to the top!

Joanne: I still remember how unhappy Daddy was when he was forced into early retirement because Uncle Ernie sold the business. Fred couldn't understand why Hazel went to work and left him home alone. Mother said she felt he would get more exercise and do more if she wasn't there. He did adapt and would put dinner in the oven and set the table for dinner, so they could sit down and eat when Hazel got home. He also did other jobs around the house, like sweeping the front porch and sidewalk.

Joanne: Mother and Daddy lived in their home for 25 years, until Daddy died on 29 January 1969, at age 71. The number of people attending his funeral was a tribute to how much he was loved by his family and respected by his friends and neighbors. Bill, at age 17, was a pallbearer at his grandfather's funeral. I really still miss Daddy to this day. I can hardly believe he has been gone so many years. Mother was a widow for 20 years until she died 24 January 1989, being the last survivor of her family. It was truly sad for her to be the last one left after having her siblings depart one by one.

Remembering the house where we grew up: 27 Gates Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA

The basement of this house was always scary to us. The light chain was at the bottom of the stairs and we would always run up the stairs after turning out the light. We had a coal furnace in the middle of the basement and someone had to go down and feed it periodically from a big coal bin at the front of the house. There was a full wall separating the coal bin from the rest of the basement and it had a short door on the left side. A coal truck would come and fill the coal bin using a coal chute from the truck through a small basement window at the front of the house. The basement was concrete from the furnace to the front of the house, and dirt behind the furnace to the back of the house. Dad had a wooden bench on the left side and Mother had a wringer washing machine on the right side at the bottom of the steps, next to a double washtub sink. Monday was always washday. It was even scarier behind the furnace! Our dog, Ginger, stayed in the basement at night, and slept on a small platform at the top of the steps.

The first floor had a small pantry with sink in the rear of the house, then a large kitchen the width of the house, next the dining room, and the parlor in the front of the house. There were 2 front doors to go through to get into the hallway that had 15 steps going up to the 2nd floor. The parlor was to the right off the hallway before the stairs. Between the dining room and parlor were 2 sliding doors that I remember being closed only when one of my sisters was entertaining a "gentleman" there. In the dining room by the stairs was a day couch that could be pulled out so 2 guests could sleep there. By the bay window were 2 chairs that were used for reading.

The second floor had a small landing at the top of the stairs, where the sewing machine was. The only bathroom was at the left rear of the house. At the right rear was Fred's room, then Mom & Dad had the next room, then June and Joanne the room in the front of the house.
The attic had the light chain at the top of the stairs and was mainly used for storage. The laundry bag was kept at the bottom of the steps, just inside the attic door.

Some other things remembered

The weekly schedule

Monday:	Wash day. After doing the wash in the basement, mother would hang it on the 4 clothes lines in the back yard.
Tuesday:	Ironing day
Wednesday:	Volunteer work at the VA hospital. I don't know what year mother started this.
Thursday:	Grocery shopping day. When Mother got home, she would check off each item on the register tape. In the evening, Aunt Nellie would have supper at our house while Uncle Ernie went to the weekly Lions Club supper meeting. After the meeting, Uncle Ernie would come to our house to play Rummy.
Friday:	A day beyond recollection (we can't remember!).
Saturday:	Pinochle in the evening with Aunt Ruth & Uncle Ray
Sunday:	Country Day. We generally went down to the farm near Shickshinny, until Grandpa Williams died.

Mother taking aspirin all the time, because of her arthritis. All this aspirin caused her to bleed profusely whenever she was cut, no matter how small the cut was.

Fred: The Simon Long building where Dad worked. You entered the building thru the front door and went down the hallway to the elevator at the end of the hall. The elevator had 2 separate doors that were manually opened and closed by the elevator operator, who asked "floor, please", and then take you there. The only thing I remember about its operation is a wheel he turned to stop the elevator, and it would take him several tries to get the elevator level with the floor. Dad worked on the 2nd floor at the end of the hall to the left. He was foreman of the shop, with one other employee.

Fred: Occasionally on Saturdays, I would go with Dad to the shop in the Simon Long building where he worked. He would fill a burlap bag with wood chips that were the byproduct of carving an artificial leg from a large, log-shaped piece of wood. He would then take the filled bag out onto the fire escape behind the shop, I would toss it to the ground, and he would be waiting on the ground to put it in our car. He would give the bag to our less-fortunate neighbor that lived in the house behind us. As their thanks to us for this, they would give us a loaf of delicious home-made bread the next day.

Meter readers walking unannounced into the house at Gates Street through the back door – In those days we didn't lock the back door during the daytime. They would say "meter man' as they walked through the kitchen to go downstairs to the basement to read the meter.

Fred: After we moved from 56 Carey Avenue to 27 Gates Street, sometimes my sisters walked me to the railroad tracks (about half way to school) while I was finishing 2nd grade at Carey Ave school – and sometimes they didn't get quite that far!

Fred: Picking tomatoes in Kingston to get money to buy Joanne a wedding present. I rode my bicycle over there each day to work. I have no idea what I bought her.

Mother always saying that she was named after Hazle Street in Wilkes-Barre, because they ran out of names. But her name was Hazel !!!

Fred: Dad sending away for something that would change their black & white TV into a color TV, and getting a piece of plastic that had 3 blended color bands on it that you could see through. We only saw it once! Dad was very disappointed.

Fred: A Halloween party that my sisters had in the attic, and Mother answered the door dressed in a skeleton costume.

Fred: On the Pier in Atlantic City we went on some type of ride that had a different type of exit. You exited thru a stage that had a man controlling a blower that was used to blow women's skirts up over their heads. Mother really panicked when she saw this and used safety pins to hold her dress together between her legs. When the man saw how she was acting, he let us out thru a secret door, bypassing the stage.

Fred: Dad sleeping in a nightgown. Mother would make them for him from a pattern. She had a manual sewing machine on the second floor at the top of the stairs, that had a big foot pedal that you put both feet on to run.
Joanne: On Decoration Day (now known as Memorial Day) Mother always went with me to plant flowers at the cemeteries, helping to plant as much as she could. I would often pick up "Aunt Hazel" and she would ride with us to the Shickshinny cemeteries. As they got older, they would sit in lawn chairs while I did the planting. Fred's note: "Aunt Hazel" was Hazel Blotz, the wife of Oscar Williams, who was a first cousin of Dad! We always called them Aunt Hazel and Uncle Oscar!

Fred: After selling his 1934 Oldsmobile, Dad bought a Nash (a lemon) that had 12 previous owners.

Fred: Dad smoking 1 to 2 packs of Camels each day. He also ate 2 fried eggs and bacon every day of his life, except when he was scheduled to go for an exam.

Fred: Dad's chest X-Rays bad results each year were ignored. He always blamed the bad results on the sawdust at work, never on smoking.

Fred: Dad with advanced emphysema taking 15 minutes to go up a flight of stairs (it seemed that long).

Joanne: When we took Daddy to the hospital (before he died), it seemed to take forever to get him from the upstairs bedroom out and into the car. No one thought to call an ambulance. Was that because of the cost, or that the hospital was only two blocks away?

Fred One person each hour was allowed to see Dad for 5 minutes (in ICU). Joanne was the last one to see him alive, and was shocked when she got back to her office and Fred called to say that Dad had died.

Fred: Mother questioning (to the family) if Dr. Valenti had done all he could for Dad. We felt he did the best he could, considering the condition of Dad's lungs and his emphysema. She was really mad at him.

Mother's life after Daddy died

(by her daughter, Joanne W. Ellis)

After Daddy died in January 1969, Mother continued working at the Department of Public Welfare as a homemaker. She sold the house and moved to an apartment on Warren Avenue in Kingston, PA. She had 2 bedrooms and asked her brother, Uncle Ernie, to come live with her. Since he was a widower living alone, he accepted her offer. After Uncle Ernie died in February 1970, Mother moved to a second floor apartment on Sterling Avenue in Wilkes-Barre, just down the street from the house she and Daddy had lived in for 25 years.

Mother had lived there only 2 years when, in 1972, the Agnes hurricane flooded Wyoming Valley. Her landlady's apartment on the first floor was completely flooded, but luckily for Mother, the water didn't get up to the second floor. The only thing Mother lost was her washing machine, which was in the basement. Since Mother's landlady needed the second floor, Mother had to find another place to live. Fortunately, she had her name in for an apartment at Provincial Towers in downtown Wilkes-Barre. The flood had put her in a priority status, and she was able to move into an efficiency apartment at Provincial Towers.

Mother continued working as a homemaker until she retired in 1977 at age 72. She then worked as a volunteer at Mercy Hospital in the escort service at least one day a week.

I would take Mother food shopping on Saturday, and she would come out to our house for dinner. We would play pinochle in the evening, and then Tudor would drive her home that night. This was our routine for quite a few years, until she decided to move into a one room apartment at nearby Heritage House where she would have her meals provided. She had also done volunteer work there, calling Bingo numbers for Friday afternoon games in the nursing home section. After being there only a few months, she decided to undergo surgery for a knee replacement. Heritage House held her apartment for her for a month while she was undergoing physical therapy, but she was never able to return there to live. Instead, she became a resident in the second floor nursing home section where she resided until she died in 1989.

Every Saturday night Tudor and I would visit her, and we often brought her out to our house to visit. One time when we had her out, the pinochle games became very intense and we lost track of time. The nursing home called and wanted to know when we were bringing her back. They said that it was past her bedtime!

At that time I worked in Scranton, and several nights a week I would stop to see Mother before going home. She would be waiting for me in her wheelchair alongside the elevator door. I tried to be cheerful and positive while visiting her, but she would want to know how much longer she had to stay there. And sadly, I was never able to really give her an answer.
